AUTO SCHOOL ENROLLMENT UP FOR 1ST CLASS

More Than Eighty Motorists Turn Out for Regular Class in Drivers' Instruction

CITY RULES EXPLAINED

Sponsors Consider Larger Quarters To Accommodate Increased Attendance

More than 80 motorists young and old attended the first regular class of Marion driving school last night forcing the sponsors officials of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to consider the advisability of moving the school to larger quarters Last night attendance at the Junior Chamber rooms above 132 East Center street represented an increase of 60 per cent over the attendance at the introductory session a week ago and Joe E Roby chairman of the traffic committee said he expected the enrollment to reach the 100 mark next week

Police Chief William E Marks lectured on traffic hazards and rules in Marion and directed the discussion J M Kratzer patrolman in charge of the Marion sub station of the state highway patrol assisted in answering questions and spoke briefly on the new drivers license law He will be instructor of the meeting two weeks hence and expects to have a high ranking official of the state patrol a guest speaker

Reviews Traffic Code

Chief Marks opened the class with a review of the official traffic code of Marion and stressed the following points In making a left turn always pass beyond and to the right of the center of the street intersection before turning when police fire or emergency cars approach all other drivers should pull to the right and stop never pull beyond the center line while waiting for a train to pass In order to get ahead If you are driving in a funeral procession do not stop at red lights If a red light catches your car on a cross walk it is best to stay there instead of backing up an amber light is not a starting signal but a warning signal to drivers already in the intersection to get out do not drive with fender or parking lights instead of headlights at night three in the front seat is the legal limit

He expressed the belief that as the old generation disappears drivers generally will be better behaving the popular belief that youthful drivers are the bad drivers

Most of our old drivers are products of a horse and buggy age he said and are essentially horse and buggy drivers Their nerves and senses are not keen the depth and vision is shallow and they are unable to get accurate conception of the other cars speed

He also defended the so called incapacitated driver the person with one leg or one arm or the color blind Few bad accidents involve these people he said chiefly because they realize their limitations and are cautious

He also brought out a fact not

My Error, Says Gov. Landon To Dr. F. A. Stengel

If Governor Landon stops in the midst of the last weeks of campaigning to wonder about the man he greeted so cordially and chatted with so pleasantly the other Monday morning in Columbus it was Dr F A Stengel of South State street

Marion's leading collector had a room on the fifth floor of the Deshler part of the Deshler Wallick hotel engaged for a state convention of optometrists At 8 on Monday morning he left his room and walking down the corridor saw three men standing at the other end A door opened and two men emerged and Dr Stengel gave them a friendly Good morning In passing One of the men called Well what are you doing here? and as the Marion man turned he recognized instantly the Republican presidential nominee and he says that at the same instant the Kansan realized his error

But the governor was a good sport and he took Dr Stengel by the arm and inquired Where are you from From Harding's home town the doctor replied and the two started for the elevator arm in arm talking about President Harding for whom Governor Landon expressed a high regard As they started toward the elevator two of the three men at the end of the corridor stepped in front of them and the man who had come out of the room with Landon stepped to the rear At the elevator were two more private detectives.

When they stepped off the elevator there were all of Dr Stengel's fellow-conventioneers waiting for a glimpse of Landon and their amazement was plainly shown when the doctor and the presidential nominee shook hands and parted, the governor going to the Broad street entrance where an automobile was waiting to take him to the depot to board a train for Cleveland, and the Marion man to be the target of good-natured curious "ribbing" from his friends.

G. O. P. "LEADING LADIES" VISIT

100 Y Campaign Workers Push Toward Goal Today

Teams Get Off to Enthusiastic Start After Dinner Meeting, G A Holland Gives Pep Talk

The Y M C A campaign for operating funds got off to an enthusiastic start last night when more than 100 drive workers attended a dinner meeting at the Y and heard G A Holland of Old Fort Mills Inc give the sendoff talk on Kill the Alibi

Along with other speakers Mr Holland sounded a call for community wide support of the Y and the program of character building it has conducted among 2 800 Marion youths in the last year

G M Martin campaign director emphasized in his brief talk the importance of putting the campaign over the top in a four-day period of intensive work Along with A W Kette who served as chairman of the meeting he asserted the drive is an easy job If it is carried on vigorously and finished quickly

The dinner meeting ended with workers selecting names from a long list of prospective donors A total of $11 000 is sought to finance Y M C A activities in Marion for a period of 12 months The workers will report their progress at dinners tonight Wednesday Thursday and Friday nights from 6 to 7 o clock

Acquatic Championship

The drive is being conducted in the form of an Olympic Aquatic championship and the workers and teams will be scored on a competitive basis for the work they do

In his talk last night, Mr Holland asserted there is greater need for such groups as the Y M C A today than there was 15 or 20 years ago

A change in our industrial life is bound to come in the next five or 10 years and social changes are certain Mr Holland said Laboring men are going to work fewer hours That means more leisure time Institutions like the Y M C A are fundamentally necessary because they teach the proper use of leisure time in order that boys and girls grow up to become useful citizens

Mr Holland asserted that we as fathers are so embroiled over making a dollar that we've neglected our duties at home we've failed to understand our children and neglected to pay with them because we've been too busy trying to make money Perhaps we need the Y M C A these days to help children understand their parents

Turning to his subject K T A (Kill The Alibi) Mr Holland related what he said was an account of the actual experiences of a man who met repeated reverses until at the suggestion of his employer he adopted the slogan Kill The Alibi Until he adopted that motto he had failed as a father husband and as a salesman while others around him working under the same handicaps he had were progressing Mr Holland said

"Sell The Y M C A"

Applying that man's experience to the campaign workers Mr Holland urged solicitors to call on their prospects with the determination to sell them on the idea of the Y M C A and obtain a contribution in keeping with the prospects ability to give He pointed out the drive could not succeed without that determination on the part of the workers because each solicitor unless determined to obtain a subscription easily could bring back an alibi if he permited prospective givers to refuse him without first hearing

ENTRIES IN STORK RACE FEAR JOKER WILL POP UP

Nature of Millar's Will, its Executors and "Darkhorse" Mother Cause Apprehension.

By The Associated Press

TORONTO Ont., Oct. 20—There was a growing premonition today among the mothers in the late Charles Vance Millar's "baby game" that somebody was sitting back awaiting the showdown with a joker.

No one seemed to know where the joker lay, if joker there were, but three possibilities were seen.

1 Millar's "uncommon and capricious" will itself.

2. The three executors of that will.

3. A "darkhorse" mother.

Lawyers who have studied the will of the happy-go-lucky-heroine say there is much chance of its being contested. However, one change in the document's provisions already has been made by the court and where there's a will, as the saying goes, there's always a chance for a lawsuit.

The deep silence with which the executors greet all inquiries concerning the famous "kiddies clause" of the testament has not helped to clarify the situation.

Britain Demands Neutrality Replies

By The Associated Press

LONDON Oct 20—Worried lest Russia bolt the farce-ridden Spain agreement and hurried by a Labor ite demand for immediate convocation of parliament to debate Spanish neutrality Great Britain today pressed Germany Italy and Portugal to reply to charges they have meddled in Spain

Informed sources said merely that the government was concerned at the delay on the part of the authoritarian states but it was learned that Lord Plymouth chairman of the non intervention committee had taken occasion to three countries

So far no date had been set for the next meeting of the committee despite growing Soviet Russian irritation However it was believed Lord Plymouth would convene the body this week If the German, Italian and Portuguese replies were forthcoming

Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin was expected to refer the labor demand to his cabinet.

The virtual alliance of British Labor with Soviet Russia, both charging the non-intervention pact had been 'deliberately violated,' led some observers to believe concrete action must be forthcoming in the immediate future.

Fear mounted Russia might make good her threat to quit the non-intervention agreement and go to the aid of beleaguered Madrid.

Overlooking ancient El Escorial burial place of Spanish kings Spain's Fascist armies dragged artillery to the heights today to shell and assault another loyal gateway to their goal—Madrid

El Escorial 24 miles northwest of the capital and Navalcarnero on the Maqueda Madrid road to the southeast of El Escorial stood as the two last bulwarks in the government defense on the western front Navalcarnero is slightly less than 20 miles from Madrid

Priceless art treasures in El Escorial Spain's Pantheon faced a doubtful fate

To the south the Fascists again within 20 miles of Madrid mopped up around Illescas and laid plans for new attack on Toriejon De La Calzada To the north the insurgents solidified their occupation of Isle to Southeast of Illescas 3 000 Moors formed a shock troop battalion for attack on Aranjuez vital rail center on the Madrid Valencia road

Spain's president Manuel Azana rushed to loyal autonomous Barcelona with three ministers from his besieged capital Official said the trip was the first of a series of tours to rally government dominated territory Back in Madrid the high command warned the situation was grave and news papers clamored Danger at the city gates will mean the shooting of 100 000 workers

President Azana will stay in Catalan indefinitely his spokesman said

The government claiming it had repulsed attacks on Aranjuez and had conducted a victorious counter assault due west of the capital (the Fascists denied this) injected a new note of international accusation

Through the Socialist newspaper Claridad it asserted 2 500 tons of munitions had come to the Loyalists through Portugal from Nazi dominated Danzig and the Polish port of Gdynia

Will Eliminate Road Hazard That Has Cost Number of Lives

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Oct 20—The Mansfield Asphalt Paving Co of Mansfield offered today to construct a grade crossing elimination project over two railroads' tracks in Bucyrus for $242 912

The company's bid was the lowest of 11 submitted to the state highway department on the project the cost of which was estimated by department engineers at $270 143 The structure will be of steel and concrete

The project is at the intersection of the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads with U S Route 30 N Bucyrus Crestline road

Service Director R L Hertzer and Frank Hopley counsel for the Lincoln Highway association were in Columbus for the meeting The contract is expected to be awarded within several days Specifications call for 270 working days in which to complete the project

The project will be one of the largest of its kind in this section of the state and will provide employment for many now unemployed in Bucyrus

It will also eliminate one of the most dangerous crossings in this section of the state. Several motorists in recent years have lost their lives on the spot where the underpass will be built.

BOY'S LEG BROKEN IN TRAFFIC MISHAP

Carl Belt, 8, of Fies Avenue, Hit by Automobile Near Home.

Carl Belt 8 son of Mr and Mrs J H Belt of 343 Fies avenue, suffered a compound fracture of the left leg when he was struck by an automobile on Bennett street near the First Pilgrim Holiness church yesterday about 5:55 p. m., according to a report to police The boy is a pupil in the third grade at Glenwood school.

The car was driven by Paul Temple of 1067 Bennett street who picked up the boy and after taking him to the Frederick C. Smith clinic for medical attention reported the accident to police.

Temple reported that he was driving west on Bennett street and that about 200 feet east of the church, the boy ran from the curb into the path of his car. The boy apparently noticed the car just a moment before he was struck and seemingly in an effort to stop slid under the rear wheel, the driver said.

BOYS VISIONED IN 'BLIND ALLEY'

ASKS MERIT SYSTEM USE

Kansan Speaks in Coliseum Tonight at 11 Over National Radio Network

By The Associated Press

ABOARD LANDON SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO LOS ANGELES Oct 20—(1:30 a. m.) Alf M Landon opened his personal drive for California's 22 presidential electoral votes today with praise for the civilian conservation corps and a pledge to remove the politicians (who) have taken over the administrative jobs

Declaring the present administration has forgotten the original purpose of the CCC the Republican nominee asserted it is threatening to lead the several hundred thousand young Americans comprising the corps down a blind alley

Landon said the CCC could be made far more effective by adoption of an educational program fitting the members for places in private life and by giving full opportunity for advancement under the merit system to the CCC boys themselves

To Talk In Coliseum

He is scheduled to speak tonight in the gigantic coliseum (at 11 p m in KNX) over a national radio network His subject has not been announced The coliseum seats 105 000

Only operating stops were made by the Sunflower Special yesterday as it rolled across Kansas Colorado New Mexico and Arizona with Landon speaking briefly at each stop

At Albuquerque late yesterday a throng police estimated at 5 000 heard the governor assail new deal reciprocal trade agreements as destroying foreign markets and increasing imports of cattle more than 500 per cent during the first six months of 1936

He told big hatted southwestern stockmen new deal policies deprived you of a broader domestic market and better prices and pledged to do all in our power to revive foreign trade

Asserting the present administration in June 1933 fumbled a great opportunity to break the trend toward intense economic nationalism which has been spreading over the world and may shortly transform economic warfare in to actual hostilities Landon said

Now I would like to ask the President whether his policies are those of the Democratic party which has traditionally stood for international trade

Sees New Party

'Are they not in fact those of a strange new party which has captured the federal government in the name of the party of Jefferson Cleveland and Wilson?

Has it not repudiated traditional Democratic doctrines in international trade and substituted new policies which are clearly leading us to the narrowest type of economic nationalism and other theories dangerous to America and to world peace

Remaining overnight in Los Angeles the candidate will start a 3 000-mile trip to the Atlantic coast at 9.30 a. m., Wednesday

A visit to Marietta O where Landon spent his youth was suggested for Sunday, Oct. 25, before he continues to Philadelphia for a major address next Monday night

Landon told the dwellers of hills and plains that "as the campaign progresses, it is becoming more and more clear it is a clash of two ideas of government"

The two ideas are, he said'

"The one that politicians know best what is good for you, and should run your lives out here in New Mexico from a swivel chair in a Washington bureau, the other that you are still capable of self-government.

"The first is the theory of many countries of the old world, as well as of our opponents in this campaign; the other is the American way. And since I am elected president, the American idea of a constitutional government of personal freedom will be preserved, come what will."

The main portion of this address was a re-interpretation of the Republican candidate's position on international trade, following some eastern criticism of his Minneapolis speech on this subject. He presented the position of the Republican party today as one which proposes to conduct reciprocal trade negotiations "in a manner to reopen foreign trade channels in such a way as not to penalize the American farmer or the industrial producer and workman.

"This aim is clear and it will be some time before [illegible]

REDUCTION IN TAXES APPROVED BY JUDGE

Company Likely To Stay in Bucyrus as Result of Action

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, O. Oct. 19 — That the W. A. Riddell Mfg. Co. will remain in Bucyrus was virtually assured this morning when Judge C. U. Mitchell ran entry ordering the company to pay $47 068.65 in delinquent taxes meeting the company's application with the court seeking reduction of one-half of its total delinquent taxes of $90 000.

The application was filed several months ago by receivers of the company and at the same time it was said that if the court did not approve the reduction the company would move to Mansfield where an agreement had been made to furnish the capital and building for the company.

Judge Mitchell stipulated that the

AUTO SCHOOL ENROLLMENT UP FOR 1ST CLASS

More Than Eighty Motorists Turn Out for Regular Class in Drivers' Instruction.

CITY RULES EXPLAINED

More than 80 motorists young and old attended the first regular class of Marion driving school last night forcing the sponsors officials of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to consider the advisability of moving the school to larger quarters Last night attendance at the Junior Chamber rooms above 131 East Center street represented an increase of 60 per cent over the attendance at the introductory session a week ago and Joe R Roby chairman of the traffic committee said he expected the enrollment to reach the 100 mark next week

Police Chief William F Marks lectured on traffic hazards and rules in Marion and directed the discussion J M Kreitzer patrolman in charge of the Marion substation of the state highway patrol assisted in answering questions and spoke briefly on the new drivers license law He will be instructor of the meeting two weeks hence and expects to have a high ranking official of the state patrol as guest speaker

Reviews Traffic Code

Chief Marks opened the class with a review of the official traffic code of Marion and stressed the following points in making a left turn always pass beyond and to the right of the center of the street intersection before turning when police fire or emergency cars approach all other drivers should pull to the right and stop never pull beyond the center line while waiting for a train to pass In order to get ahead if you are driving in a funeral procession do not stop at red lights if a red light catches your car on a cross walk it is best to stay there instead of backing up an amber light is not a starting signal but a warning signal to drivers already in the intersection to get out do not drive with fender or parking lights instead of headlights at night three in the front seat is the legal limit

He expressed the belief that as the old generation disappears drivers generally will be better having the popular belief that youthful drivers are the bad drivers

Most of our old drivers are products of a horse and buggy age he said and are essentially horse and buggy drivers Their nerves and senses are not keen the depth and vision is shallow and they are unable to get accurate conception of the other cars speed

He also defended the so called incapacitated driver the person with one leg or one arm or the color blind Few bad accidents involve these people he said chiefly because they realize their limitations and are cautious

He also brought out a fact not

My Error, Says Gov. Landon To Dr. F. A. Stengel

If Governor Landon stops in the midst of the last weeks of campaigning to wonder about the man he greeted so cordially and chatted with so pleasantly the other Monday morning in Columbus it was Dr F A Stengel of South State street

Marion's leading collector had a room on the fifth floor of the Deshler part of the Deshler Wallick hotel engaged for a state convention of optometrists At 8 on Monday morning he left his room and walking down the corridor saw three men standing at the other end A door opened and two men emerged and Dr Stengel gave them a friendly Good morning in passing One of the men called Well what are you doing here? and as the Marion man turned he recognized instantly the Republican presidential nominee and he says that at the same instant the Kansan realized his error

But the governor was a good sport and he took Dr Stengel by the arm and inquired Where are you from? From Harding's home town the doctor replied and the two started for the elevator arm in arm talking about President Harding for whom Governor Landon expressed a high regard As they started toward the elevator two of the three men at the end of the corridor stepped in front of them and the man who had come out of the room with Landon stepped to the rear At the elevator were two more private detectives.

When they stepped off the elevator there were all of Dr Stengel's fellow-conventioners waiting for a glimpse of Landon and their amazement was plainly shown when the doctor and the presidential nominees shook hands and parted the governor going to the Broad street entrance where an automobile was waiting to take him to the depot to board a train for Cleveland, and the Marion man to be the target of good-natured envious "ribbing" from his friends.

G. O. P. "LEADING LADIES" VISIT

100 Y Campaign Workers Push Toward Goal Today

Teams Get Off to Enthusiastic Start After Dinner Meeting; G. A Holland Gives Pep Talk

The Y M C A campaign for operating funds got off to an enthusiastic start last night when more than 100 drive workers attended a dinner meeting at the Y and heard G A Holland of Old Fort Mills Inc give the sendoff talk on Kill the Alibi

Along with other speakers Mr Holland sounded a call for community wide support of the Y and the program of character building it has conducted among 2 800 Marion youths in the last year

G M Martin campaign director emphasized in his brief talk the importance of putting the campaign over the top in a four day period of intensive work Along with A W Kelte who served as chairman of the meeting he asserted the drive is an easy job if it is carried on vigorously and finished quickly

The dinner meeting ended with workers selecting names from a long list of prospective donors A total of $11 000 is sought to finance Y M C A activities in Marion for a period of 12 months The workers will report their progress at dinners tonight Wednesday Thursday and Friday nights from 6 to 7 o clock

Aquatic Championship

The drive is being conducted in the form of an Olympic Aquatic championship and the workers and teams will be scored on a competitive basis for the work they do

In his talk last night Mr Holland asserted there is greater need for such groups as the Y M C A today than there was 15 or 20 years ago

A change in our industrial life is bound to come in the next five or 10 years and social changes are certain Mr Holland said Laboring men are going to work fewer hours That means more leisure time Institutions like the Y M C A are fundamentally necessary because they teach the proper use of leisure time in order that boys and girls grow up to become useful citizens

Mr Holland asserted that we as fathers are so embroiled over making a dollar that we've neglected our duties at home—we've failed to understand our children and neglected to pay with them because we've been too busy trying to make money Perhaps we met the Y M C A these days to help children understand their parents

Turning to his subject K T A (Kill The Alibi) Mr Holland related what he said is an account of the actual experiences of a man who met repeated reverses until at the suggestion of his employer he adopted the slogan Kill The Alibi Until he adopted that motto he had failed as a father husband and as a salesman while others around him working under the same handicaps he had were progressing Mr Holland said

Applying that man's experience to the campaign workers Mr Holland urged solicitors to call on their prospects with the determination to sell them on the idea of the Y M C A and obtain a contribution in keeping with the prospect's ability to give He pointed out the drive could not succeed without that determination on the part of the workers because each solicitor unless determined to obtain a subscription easily could bring back an alibi if he permitted prospective givers to refuse him without first hearing

ENTRIES IN STORK RACE FEAR JOKER WILL POP UP

Nature of Millar's Will, Its Executors and "Darkhorse" Mother Cause Apprehension.

By The Associated Press

TORONTO Ont., Oct. 20—There was a growing premonition today among the mothers in the late Charles Vance Millar's baby game' that somebody was sitting back awaiting the showdown with a joker

No one seemed to know where the joker lay if joker there were, but three possibilities were seen

1 Millar's 'uncommon and capricious' will itself

2. The three executors of that will

3. A 'darkhorse' mother

Lawyers who have studied the will of the lawyer-brewer-horseman say there is small chance of its being successfully challenged. However one change in the document's provisions already has been made by the court and where there's a will as the saying goes there's always a chance for a lawsuit.

The deep silence with which the executors greet all inquiries concerning the famous kiddies clause of the testament has not helped to clarify the situation

The 'kiddies clause' in plain language bequeaths the bulk of Millar's estate—an estate builded on the bachelor barrister's success at the bar and in the brewing business—to "the mother who has since my death (at the end of 10

Only Two Towns Remain in Path of Fascist Forces, Azana Leaves Capital

By The Associated Press

Overlooking ancient El Escorial burial place of Spanish kings Spain's fascist armies dragged artillery to the heights today to shell and assault another royal gateway to their goal—Madrid

El Escorial 24 miles northwest of the capital and Navalcarnero on the Maqueda Madrid road to the southeast of El Escorial stood as the two last bulwarks in the government defense on the western front Navalcarnero is slightly less than 20 miles from Madrid

In the south the Fascists again within 20 miles of Madrid mopped up around Illescas and laid plans for new attack on Torrejon De La Calzada In the north the insurgents solidified their occupation of Toledo Southeast of Illescas 3 000 Moors formed a shock troop battalion for attack on Aranjuez vital rail center on the Madrid Valencia road

Spain's president Manuel Azana rushed to loyal autonomous Barcelona with three ministers from his besieged capital Officials said the trip was the first of a series of tours to rally government dominated territory Back in Madrid the high command warned the situation was grave and news papers blazoned Danger at the city gates will mean the shooting of 100 000 workers

The government claiming it had repulsed attacks on Aranjuez and had conducted a victorious counter assault due west of the capital (the Fascists denied this) injected a new note of international accusation

Through the Socialist newspaper Claridad it asserted 2 500 tons of munitions had come to the Fascists through Portugal from Nazi dominated Danzig and the Polish port of Gdynia.

Britain Demands Neutrality Replies

By The Associated Press

LONDON Oct 20—Worried lest Russia bolt the hands off Spain agreement and hurried by a Labor ite demand for immediate convocation of parliament to debate Spanish neutrality Great Britain today pressed Germany Italy and Portugal to reply to charges they have meddled in Spain

Informed sources said merely that the government was concerned at the delay on the part of the authoritarian states but it was learned that Lord Plymouth chairman of the non intervention committee had taken occasion to three countries

So far no date had been set for the next meeting of the committee despite growing Soviet Russian irritation However it was believed Lord Plymouth would convene the body this week If the German Italian and Portuguese replies were forthcoming

The virtual alliance of British Labor with Soviet Russia both charging the non intervention pact had been deliberately violated led some observers to believe concrete action must be forthcoming in the immediate future

Fear mounted Russia might make good her threat to quit the non intervention agreement and go to the aid of beleaguered Madrid

Mansfield Firm Offers To Build Underpass at Crossing for $242 912

WORK TO START SOON

Will Eliminate Road Hazard That Has Cost Number of Lives

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Oct 20—The Mansfield Asphalt Paving Co of Mansfield offered today to construct a grade crossing elimination project over two railroad tracks in Bucyrus for $242 912

The company's bid was the low est of 11 submitted to the state highway department on the project the cost of which was estimated by department engineers at $270 143 The structure will be of steel and concrete

The project is at the intersection of the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads with U S Route 30 N Bucyrus Crestline road

Service Director H I Heltzer and Frank Hopley counsel for the Lincoln Highway association were in Columbus for the meeting The contract is expected to be awarded within several days Specifications call for 270 working days in which to complete the project

The project will be one of the largest of its kind in this section of the state and will provide employment for many now unemployed in Bucyrus

It will also eliminate one of the most dangerous crossings in this section of the state Several motorists in recent years have lost their lives on the spot where the underpass will be built.

BOY'S LEG BROKEN IN TRAFFIC MISHAP

Carl Belt 8, of Fies Avenue, Hit by Automobile Near Home

Carl Belt 8 son of Mr and Mrs J H Belt of 382 Flea avenue suffered a compound fracture of the left leg when he was struck by an automobile on Bennett street near the First Pilgrim Holiness church yesterday about 6 15 p m according to a report to police The boy is a pupil in the third grade at Glenwood school

The car was driven by Paul Temple of 1067 Bennett street who picked up the boy and after taking him to the Frederick C Smith clinic for medical attention reported the accident to police

Temple reported that he was driving west on Bennett street and that about 200 feet east of the church the boy ran from the curb into the path of his car The boy apparently noticed the car just a moment before he was struck and seemingly in an effort to stop slid under the rear wheel, the driver said

The rear wheel of the car passed over the boy breaking his left leg between the ankle and knee the driver told police X-rays of the injury were taken at the clinic and after a fracture had been set and the leg placed in a cast the child was returned to his home

By The Associated Press

ABOARD LANDON SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO LOS ANGELES Oct 20 (6:00 AM) Alf M Landon opened his personal drive for California 22 presidential electoral votes today with praise for the civilian conservation corps and a pledge to remove the politicians (who) have taken over the administrative jobs

Declaring the present administration has forgotten the original purpose of the CCC the Republican nominee asserted it is threatening to lead the several hundred thousand young Americans comprising the corps down a blind alley

Landon said the CCC could be made far more effective by adoption of an educational program fitting the members for places in private life and by giving full opportunity for advancement under the merit system to the CCC boys themselves

To Talk in Coliseum

He is scheduled to speak tonight in the gigantic coliseum (at 11 p m EST) over a national radio network His subject has not been announced The coliseum seats 105 000

Only operating stops were made by the Sunflower Special yesterday as it rolled across Kansas Colorado New Mexico and Arizona with Landon speaking briefly at each stop

At Albuquerque late yesterday a throng police estimated at 6 000 heard the governor assail new deal reciprocal trade agreements as destroying foreign markets and increasing imports of cattle more than 500 per cent during the first six months of 1936

He told big hatted southwestern stockmen new deal policies deprived you of a broader domestic market and better prices and pledged to do all in our power to revive foreign trade

Asserting the present administration in June 1933 fumbled a great opportunity to break the trend toward intense economic nationalism which has been spreading over the world and may shortly transform economic warfare into actual hostilities Landon said

Now I would like to ask the President whether his policies are those of the Democratic party which has traditionally stood for international trade

Here New Party

Are they not in fact those of a strange new party which has captured the federal government in the name of the party of Jefferson Cleveland and Wilson?

Has it not repudiated traditional Democratic doctrines in international trade and substituted new policies which are clearly leading us to the narrowest type of economic nationalism and other theories dangerous to America and to world peace

Remaining overnight in Los Angeles the candidate will start a 3 000 mile trip to the Atlantic coast at 9 30 a m Wednesday

A visit to Marietta O where Landon spent his youth was suggested for Sunday Oct 25 before he continues to Philadelphia for a major address next Monday night

Landon told the dwellers of hills and plains that as the campaign progresses it is becoming more and more clear it is a clash of two ideas of government"

The two ideas are he said

The one that politicians know best what is good for you and should run your lives out here in New Mexico from a swivel chair in a Washington bureau the other that you are still capable of self-government

"The first is the theory of many countries of the old world as well as of our opponents in this campaign, the other is the American way And once I am elected president, the American idea of a constitutional government of personal freedom will be preserved, come what will

The main portion of this address was re-interpretation of the Republican candidate's position on international trade following some eastern criticism of his Minneapolis speech on this subject. He presented the position of the Republican party today as one which proposes to conduct reciprocal trade negotiations in a manner "to reopen foreign trade channels in such a way as not to penalize the American farmer or the industrial producer and workman

"This can be done and it will be done once I am elected"

The governor reiterated his

Brooks Fletcher Worked in Steel Mills

The following reprinted in part from the biography entitled Interesting Episodes in Life of Brooks Fletcher

From His Tragic Days As Laborer in Boiler Works and Steel Mills Brooks Fletcher Has Fought for The Man Who Toils

In writing Brooks Fletcher's life story for the American Magazine Dr Albert Edward Wiggam relates how Mr Fletcher early left the farm and worked as a salesman in a hardware store as a waiter in a restaurant in the railroad freight transfer in the boiler works as a laborer in the steel mills and at anything he could turn his hand to that he might earn money for an education

Scholarship

Brooks Fletcher's habit of study at the end of a working day and far into the night is responsible for his present reputation as a brilliant scholar and one of the best informed men in the United States Congress today

He Knows America

Speaking everywhere throughout the United States and Canada Mr Fletcher has had an opportunity to study business economics and social conditions at first hand and to learn the legislative needs of the country

In the capacity of a newspaper man and a favorite speaker for religious political educational business and civic groups he has been accorded remarkable advantages for a first hand study of conditions throughout our nation

Consequently he has a vast storehouse of knowledge gained through personal contact with the people of more than three thousand communities in which he has been the speaker guest.

Himself a laborer in the boiler works and steel mills Mr Fletcher's sympathies are ever with the working man as his legislative record shows While toiling as a poorly paid laborer in the steel mills Brooks Fletcher set through cooperation of Samuel Compers organized several hundred steel mill workers and helped them remedy their deplorable working conditions

Editorship

Brooks Fletcher attained editorship of daily newspaper soon after leaving college At time he took over editorship newspapers often referred to him as The youngest editor of a daily newspaper in the country

Speech Stirs Congress.

Mr Fletcher's speeches on education delivered in Congress and elsewhere are widely quoted and are in great demand by the nation's education leaders in every state

Dr Morgan head of the Department of Publication of the National Education Association of which more than two hundred thousand teachers are members has proclaimed Brooks Fletcher one of the most talented friends of youth and education in Congress Dr Morgan addressing an audience of five thousand educators in annual convention said that Mr Fletcher had made the most outstanding speech on education ever delivered in the Congress of the United States to his knowledge

Wallis Warfield Spencer

DIVORCE IN VIRGINIA

Wallis Spencer was famous for her charm when she lived at the Warren Green hotel in Warrenton Va in 1926 and '27 and got a divorce from her naval officer husband Her signature is from the divorce papers

* * *

Third of a series of four articles by an Associated Press writer

By SIGRID ARNE
Associated Press Writer

SAPPINGTON Va Oct 20—There are understanding nods on all sides here in this little resort of the blue bloods as the world babbles about the public appearances of the king of England with the Baltimore born Mrs Ernest Simpson

Warrenton once worshipped at the shrine of Wallis Warfield Simpson She was then Wallis Warfield Spencer who had come to live here in 1920 and 1927 to get a divorce from her first husband Lt F Winfield Spencer

She had scarcely registered for a small suite at the old red brick Warren-Green hotel when word went out that the town was richer by one very fetching lady Dinner and dinner invitations flowed to the hotel After all the stranger was a Montague of Virginia on her mother's side and a Warfield of Maryland on her father's side And ancestral lines mean everything here where the horse loving gentry of the South has collected to hunt for generations

They All Liked Her

Mrs Simpson seems to have lived up to her promise She was here two years and even the grey haired rocking chair brigade which can be relied upon to get out hammer and tongs still gives Mrs Simpson its royal approval with Wallis was such a dear girl

From the toothpick at the hotel to the fingers of Virginia estates the first reaction to Mrs Simpson's name is always She was so charming and witty she had personality

But try to make them concrete They can't put her charm into words She had an indefinable way of warming the heart and bringing a laugh She was witty but she didn't tell the current funny story She was charming but she wasn't a sugary flatterer She had more brains than she could wish But one cocktail was her limit and she liked to get home at a discreet hour She was the belle of the town

She didn't dress elaborately She wore tailored clothes Her formal dresses were simple things and she wore flowers and jewelry She had a medium figure a small foot and a bright smile She had the typical low voice of the well bred southerner She seemed very much alone

Banker Laid Court

Her most faithful escort of those two years was Hugh A Spillman a handsome blond curly haired banker who had known her in childhood when they both attended private schools in Baltimore He is still a bachelor who has a desk drawer where he keeps all the pictures that are being published of her

He grins engagingly and like the gallant southerner says

I'll say this for the king He's got the best taste in the world

She must have had 30 different proposals while she was here I know I proposed to her regularly once a day

Visited Simpson

But Wallis Warfield had begun to talk of Ernest Simpson She went to New York several times during her stay at Warrenton to see him her friends say They begged her to bring him down but she refused

Her divorce from Spencer was quietly handled by State Senator Aubrey Weaver of Front Royal Va who is a friend of her family The testimony was given through depositions which are still on file at the old colonial courthouse

It seems according to the depositions that her first husband deserted her five years before she sought a divorce and when she sued she asked no alimony She testified she had a very small income of between $3 000 and $4 000 from her grandmother's estate

She was 31 years old then which makes her 40 now Her marriage to Spencer took place on Nov 8 1916 in Baltimore and for five years she lived a navy wife's life moving from place to place

We were in California in 1920 when Win set our for Florida she testified He refused to take me along Finally through letters I was able to show him he was acting stupid We began to live together again in Washington in 1921 But it was very unhappy He drank perhaps terribly He was home very little He threw bottles at me and hair brushes

Wallis's mother Mrs Charles Allen of Washington (she had her third husband then) testified in the same manner

Friendly Parting"

Among the divorce papers is a little note from Spencer written from a battleship on June 15 1924 It said

I have come to the definite conclusion that I can never live with you again During the past two years since I have been away from you I have been happier than ever before He ended with Please be kind enough not to annoy me with any more letters Yours Win

But Senator Weaver saw none of the bitterness in their final dealings

The case was not contested he says It was just a matter of incompatibility Spencer was a handsome man of medium height with black hair He was just as popular as Wallis He came down to Front Royal when we took the last depositions and we all sat around and talked very cordially Wallis and he shook hands and parted friends

Future of Medicine

It is a joy to the doctor when a desperately sick patient makes a nice recovery It is far less dramatic to stop an epidemic or to prevent an infection with typhoid or diphtheria. But who can doubt that disease prevention is far more important than its treatment and cure

In the past quarter of a century great advances have been made in medicine New germs new diseases and new methods of treating old diseases have been discovered

As I view it the most important of all the progress in medicine is the development of what is known as preventive medicine This has lessened disease decreased the number of deaths per year and greatly increased the expectation of life

Notable among these advances are the various methods of giving immunization against disease The word immunization is applied to the results of inoculation or vaccination developing in the body powers of resistance which enable it to fight off infections and contagious diseases.

Smallpox Eradicated

Smallpox has been all but eradicated Cases of this one-time dread infection are now seldom heard of in civilized countries This marked change can only be attributed to universal vaccination

All children should be vaccinated against smallpox before they are one year old The United States public health service advises that before entering school the child should be vaccinated again

Another dreaded disease now controlled by immunization is diphtheria. This terrible ailment is wholly preventable

Most persons are confused in distinguishing between toxins and antitoxins An individual with diphtheria may be greatly aided by the administration of diphtheria antitoxin In fact this method has greatly decreased the death rate among diphtheria patients But diphtheria antitoxin will not prevent diphtheria

Active immunity of protection against diphtheria is obtained by the use of diphtheria toxin antitoxin By means of a special procedure called the Schick test it is possible to determine whether an individual is susceptible to diphtheria If he is he should receive the toxin-antitoxin injection and be protected against this disease.

By a similar method of application typhoid fever can be prevented This disease is now never found in the army or navy Men entering the service receive the injection and should be used by everybody [illegible] to be exposed to typhoid

Other diseases formerly feared are now well within the limits of prevention The future of medicine lies in prevention rather than cure

The Stars Say—

For Wednesday, Oct. 21

A DAY that may be characterized as startling and revolutionary is presaged from the lunar transits. These are sustained by a mutual configuration that may emphasize the romantic, novel or out-of-the-ordinary in both business and private life. There may be sudden upheavals, removals or journeys, with strangers and fresh contacts contributing to the happiness as well as the progress of life.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year of sudden change, with rather abrupt, and radical upheavals in all the affairs. The element of romance, novelty, or the unorthodox seems uppermost, with private affections actuating things to a surprising degree. This may be sensational or spectacular and cause sudden change, removal or travel. Elopements come under this configuration.

A child born on this day may be enterprising, adventurous and romantic, and its career may take it to strange places and into the public eye.

RECEPTION HELD AT CLARIDON CHURCH

Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Angle were complimented with a community reception Friday night in the township hall at Claridon. They were presented a number of gifts from the group. Informal talks were given by Lawrence Douce and Rev. Angle. About 50 residents of the community attended. Rev. Angle recently was reassigned to the pastorate of the Claridon M. E. church.

MINISTERS VOTE $10 TO Y CAMPAIGN

Association Meets at Library; E. N. Hale Speaks.

The sum of $10 was voted to the Y. M. C. A. drive fund by the Marion County Ministerial association at a meeting yesterday morning at the City library.

Rev. E. A. Lehman of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, president of the association, opened the meeting by conducting a memorial service for the late Rev. William M. Davis of Calvary Evangelical church, a member of the association.

A motion was made to amend the constitution to the effect that meetings be held once a month instead of semi-monthly. Action will be taken at the next meeting, Nov. 2.

Rev. W. H. Kiser of the Asbury-Morral M. E. charge and Rev. J. H. Massie of the Park Street A. M. E. church were welcomed into membership.

The address of the morning was given by Earl N. Hale of the Y. M. C. A. on "Campaign Oddities." Mr. Hale, who has made a hobby of studying the Presidents, their wives, entertained the members with pertinent facts about presidential campaigns.

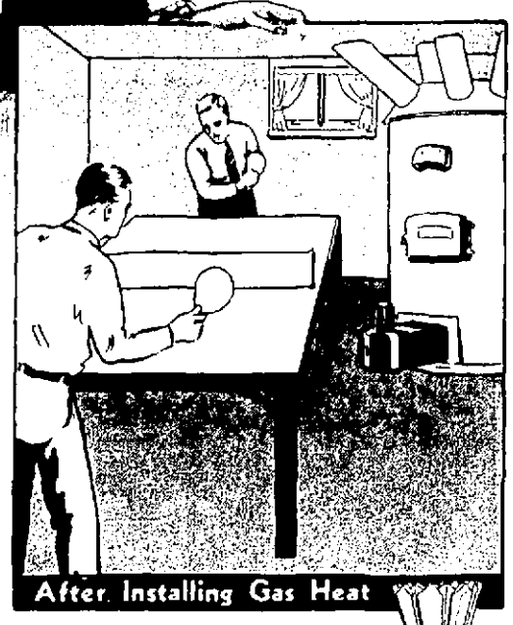
Last Winter Cured Us of Firing a Furnace

Before Installing Gas Heat

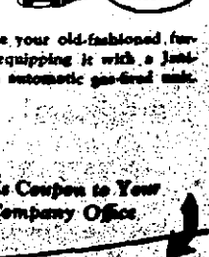
This Year We'll Heat With GAS



After Installing Gas Heat

Thousands of families, who endured unpleasant heating conditions last winter, will face this winter with clean, carefree gas heat of even temperatures. And most of these families were surprised to learn how easy it is to change over to modern heating.

A heating engineer from The Gas Company is glad to call at your home to survey your heating plant. He will tell you the exact cost of converting your old-fashioned furnace into a modern gas-fired unit. And he will make an authentic estimate on the cost of heating your home with gas. The first step is to phone The Gas Company, or mail the coupon, requesting this free survey. Your inquiry incurs no obligation.



Modernize your old-fashioned furnace by equipping it with a Janitrol — an automatic gas-fired unit.

"GET OUT THE VOTE" CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Junior Chamber of Commerce Urges Marionites To Go to Polls Nov 3

The get out the vote campaign of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be in full swing in a few days Clarence Hart chairman of the committee in charge said today Letters urging the use of the franchise have been sent to 26 civic patriotic and fraternal organizations with a total membership running into the thousands Mr Hart said

The letter explains the campaign is non partisan and results from the belief that good government can be obtained only by an alert intelligent electorate which will get out and vote

Small signs appealing to citizens to take advantage of their right to choose their officials will be placed in restaurants and hotels on inbies Similar placards will be posted in busses

Mr Hart said arrangements were being made to employ the German band of the Eagles lodge here to advance the campaign by playing through the city in a decorated float He said they had originally planned to obtain one of the hacks used in Marion in the 90's but that the only hack in town had been taken away

A new committee was selected for the campaign at a meeting this week Besides Mr Hart it includes Robert Bush Marion McCreary Guy Stolly Howard Lunch and Robert Sollinger

All Marion Is Talking About This New Kind Of Modern Food Clinic

Miss Elizabeth Scatterday

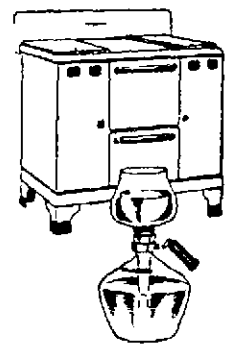
Miss Scatterday special representative in charge of demonstrations for the Gasco Food Institute is winning acclaim among local homemakers for the interest of her demonstrations

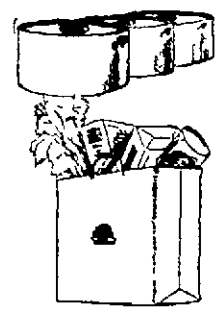
It's "the talk of the town"—this 1937 Gasco Food Institute now being presented each afternoon by The Gas Company at the Marion Star Auditorium. Unique methods of presentation — delicious new food servings—modern methods of cookery in a beautiful, efficient model kitchen—these are only a few of the many outstanding surprises which thrill Marion homemakers in attendance. There's a professional, yet charmingly informal manner about the technique of this unusual food clinic. Miss Scatterday, in charge of demonstrations, and Miss Schofield, her assistant, are most pleasing in their dramatization of the art of modern cookery.

Miss Evelina Schofield

Miss Schofield Home Service Representative of The Gas Company in Marion ably assist Miss Scatterday at all sessions of the Food Institute

Valuable Merchandise At Each Day's Session





Valuable merchandise will be on display at each session of the Food Institute This includes Silex Coffee Makers, Wear-ever Aluminum ware set, cutlery set mixing bowls, 21 large shopping bags of groceries, and a new mode TAPPAN Divided Top Gas Range

Tips On Party Entertaining to Feature "The Talk of the Town" Program

Every one likes to give parties that are "the talk of the town." Yet, we prefer food servings that are easy to prepare and serve, with a thrifty eye on costs. This problem of successful entertaining comprises the major portion of the second day's program of the Food Institute. The complete demonstration is in dialogue—dramatic, different, entertaining. Attend this outstanding program tomorrow afternoon beginning promptly at 2:00.

G.O.P. CHAIRMAN DEMANDS PROBE OF GIFTS TO FOES

Corrupt Practices Act Is Violated in Solicitation of $300,000

...a part of the fund raised by it for the conduct of the campaign

The corporations so contributing include many of the large industrial corporations The federal corrupt practices act makes it unlawful for any corporation whatever to make a contribution in connection with any election at which presidential or vice presidential electors are to be voted for and for any political committee or other person to receive any contribution prohibited by said act

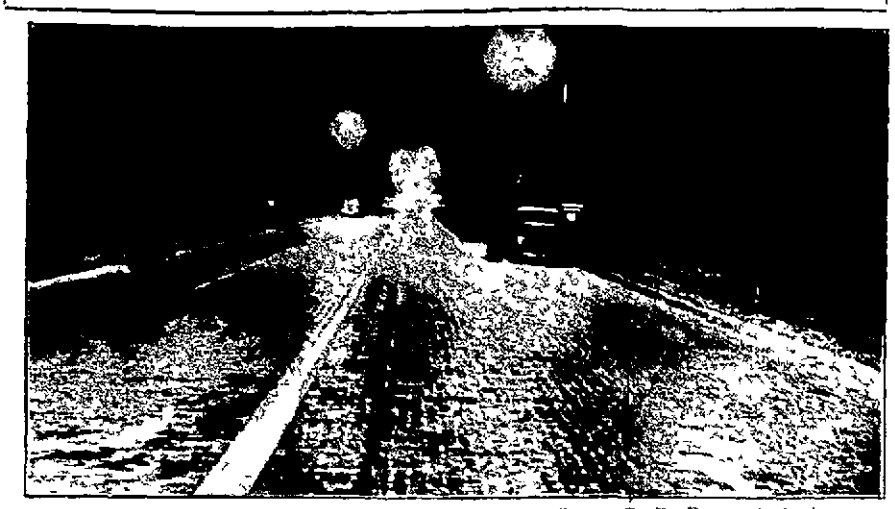
Receipt of these contributions would appear clearly to be in violation of the federal corrupt practices act

Many of the corporations contributing are corporations having government contracts or business dealings with the government or both There is reason to believe that pressure was exercised to compel them to subscribe to the Democratic campaign fund out of fear of refusal or hope of reward

Then mentioning the investigation made by Senator Lonergans committee of Republican campaign contributions made by private person who had a perfect right to contribute Hamilton's statement concluded

Both the public interest and your duty require an immediate public hearing and we therefore demand such a hearing

FIRST OHIO SAFETY HIGHWAY MAKES DEBUT



This Is How the First of 48 "Educational Safety Highways," Soon To Be Erected in Various Parts of Ohio, Looks to Motorists Who Pass Through the Demonstration After Dark

Located just north of Canton on Route 8 this safety experience highway was officially put in operation Oct 12 It is designed to acquaint motorists and pedestrians with the benefits to be enjoyed when the four essentials necessary to highway safety prevail They are Good Roads Good Cars Good Seeing and Sane Conduct

The road is regarded as good because of its generous width freedom from needless curves and plainly marked lines which separate each of the four lanes from its neighbor Flanking both sides of the highway are neat roadside signs bearing concise educational messages which for example inform the passerby that highway lighting reduces strain on eyes and brain and remind him periodically check his brakes According to safety experts it is surprising to see what a substantial effect roadside education has in bringing about better cars and safer drivers

To insure the best possible seeing conditions on this one mile demonstration stretch a scientifically designed system of safety lighting is provided The 25 sodium luminaires used are identical with the type of units being furnished for the new San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge The golden yellow light produced is so distributed that objects though far ahead on the road are clearly projected against the well lighted pavement In the above picture note how the new safety lighting not only makes the man examining his rear tire and the car plainly visible but reduces glare from headlights of the oncoming car as well

This educational safety highway as well as the other demonstration trips soon to be instituted elsewhere in the state are but one phase in a comprehensive statewide program launched by the Ohio State Safety Council a few months ago The movement has for its purpose not only the elimination of preventable traffic fatalities but aims to bring Ohio from 41st position in highway safety to first

And the first place to begin work said Judge Roy H Williams president of the council to 60 safety leaders at a dinner meeting in Canton the night the highway was formally dedicated is on our main rural highways For it is there where a shocking number of fatalities occur And more than half of these happen after dark despite the fact that relatively few cars are on the road

Campaign Arguments of 1932 Evidence of Broken Pledges, He Tells Audience

Campaign arguments of the Democrats in the 1932 campaign were cited by John H Clark Marion attorney last night to more than 100 persons in the town hall at Green Camp Mr Clark quoted from the Democratic literature

The Hoover administration has built up a debt of 20 billion dollars We promise a 25 per cent reduction in government expenses

No effort has been made by the new deal to cut expenses Mr Clark said pointing to a 34 billion dollar deficit He also attacked the government in business and asserted the new deal bought nearly four million head of cattle and sheep in one year

The NRA was contrary to anti trust laws he said He also replied to President Roosevelt's statement that farmers had experienced 32 lean years and gave figures showing wheat had sold for as high as $1.38 per bushel and corn for 81 during the Republican years

Earl Thomas county representative spoke on state issues Entertainment was furnished by the Republican Glee club

TUESDAY OCTOBER 20 1936

FOR CONGRESS

MANY congressmen who rode on Franklin Roosevelt's coat tails to good jobs in Washington are going to be turned out into the cold Nov 3 The United States has no further use for new deal rubber stamps

Regardless of who is elected President it is imperative for the good of the national system of government that congress be fortified again with men who will regard for that body its traditional independence of the executive branch

The prestige dignity and usefulness of congress were undermined deeply in the landslide of 1932 and again in the 1934 congressional elections by the sudden success of a great number of candidates whose only political policy was to be obliging to the Roosevelt administration In 1936 the new deal can not save them They will have to stand on their own feet

To provide representation from the Eighth congressional district which will assure support of the movement for restoration of sound principles of constitutional government Grant E Mouser Jr the Republican nominee should be elected

In his previous service as a member of the house of representatives he not only gave close attention to the interests of his district but was a consistent supporter of progressive and constructive measures relating to the nation's welfare

Although there are many including this newspaper who are unwilling to accept his viewpoint with respect to the Townsend plan there is confidence he can be counted upon to act in accord with a program of national advancement and help put an end to the compliant attitude of the last congress

The Y. M. C. A. Campaign.

In the ranks of Marion citizens today are hundreds of men who give the Y M C A credit for having been a beneficial influence for them in the years of their boyhood and youth Added to that number are many others who are now active in the pursuits of life elsewhere and who likewise recall the wholesome and enjoyable recreation and training they received at the Marion Y M C A as an important factor in giving them the right start toward useful and honorable careers

Some of them have achieved outstanding success in one field or another others are in the rank and file of plain substantial citizens Whatever their station in life it is a safe bet that most of them are men of fine character interested in the happiness and welfare of others as well as their own They know too how to enjoy life as they make along with it realizing that the greatest enjoyment is derived from the better things

That is the viewpoint gained from those who participate in the Y M C A program and it is especially lasting and effective because it is acquired in the earlier and formative years when the building of character is most important

To perpetuate the institution which performs this fine service a campaign for maintenance funds is held annually and one is now in progress The small dues charged for membership kept at a nominal figure in order that the greatest possible number of boys and men may enjoy the benefits of enrollment is not sufficient to pay operating expenses That is as it should be So people of Marion generally are asked to make up the difference and almost invariably they respond generously They do this because they realize that Marion without a Y M C A adequately maintained would lack something vitally essential in the community life And as all citizens are virtually Marion stockholders they wisely understand that they serve their own interests by helping supply its needs

They have the opportunity and privilege of doing that this week Volunteer solicitors busy people giving their time to the work will call for subscriptions to the next years maintenance fund and they should be received with a hearty welcome And if by any chance you are not reached by solicitors don't let that keep your name off the list of contributors Be sure that you have a part in the support of this very important and valuable community institution

It's No Joke.

Does President Roosevelt intend to aggravate the issue of business regimentation if he is elected? Will he seek a constitutional amendment broadening the scope of federal authority over industry and commerce or will he attempt to extend that authority by various indirect methods?

Mr. Roosevelt has been conducting a laughing, joking campaign. His reply to

Illinois Looks To Landon

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1936, by The Marion Star

Today's dispatch describes the political situation in Illinois—the 33rd state visited by David Lawrence in his personal survey of 40 states outside the "solid south."

CHICAGO Ill Oct 20 — Illinois is close doubtful uncertain but there are many reasons for believing Governor Landon has the edge

Downstate Illinois is concededly Republican this year substantial gains having been made in the 1934 vote over 1932 and further strides being apparent in the informal canvasses that have been taken this year

But Cook county may prove the surprise of the election Here in populous Chicago President Roosevelt received the biggest demonstration in the form of a street parade that has happened in the campaign but notwithstanding this Mr Roosevelt may be lucky to get a fifty fifty break in Cook county

Should Mr Landon's total downstate come to Chicago's 1 500 000 to 200 000 majority the Republican leader in Chicago would get the state by 150 000

The political basis for any assertion that Cook county is for or against as the street parade would seem to indicate is the heavy registration in the Republican wards of the city at the culmination of the primary of 1936 applying it the light of the new registration figures

It is usually true that a heavy registration indicates a protest against the party in power This year in the primary Mr Roosevelt received 831 000 votes in Cook county and that represented surprise at the time as it was in fact only a demonstration for Mr Roosevelt benefit by the Kelly Nash machine that ought to be preferred to Governor Horner in the distribution of new deal favors in this locality

But 831 000 votes it now turns out is less than half of the recently tabulated registration in Cook county which is about 2 140 000 Mr Roosevelt would have to get 270 000 more votes than he had in the primary just to carry even Cook county Experience shows that the party in power usually can get about 80 per cent of its primary vote

Artificial Stimulant Used

As for the street parade a city that has 841 000 votes for a particular candidate can produce at any time a street parade of 200 000 and that's a lot of people on the streets There is documentary evidence more than of an artificially stimulated demonstration It is the text of a telegram letter published in local newspapers which shows that the union labor leaders compelled attendance in the parade

Dear Sir and Brother you are requested to be in a parade Wednesday evening October 14 1936 at 8 p m at Jackson and Michigan boulevard

This parade is very urgent and you are subject to be fined should you not appear by the Painters Decorators and Paper hangers of America Wood Finishers Local Union No 61

Fraternally yours
J Obent recording secretary"

This is the first time so far as is known that a labor has endeavored to coerce its members under penalty of a fine for failing to appear in a political demonstration

Likewise it is reported that the 80 000 holders of federal jobs in the WPA and other agencies were each required to bring five persons to the parade This alone would account for 75 000 to 100 000 people if only one or two extra persons were brought to the line of march

Chicago newspapers are astir editorially over the incident and are pointing out that this kind of regimentation is exactly that which is used by Hitler to assemble the mass demonstrations which are so often pictured in the movies and in the Sunday picture sections of American newspapers

Likewise there is a decided amount of regimentation in the political arena They have here in Illinois for instance a Two Per Cent club just like in Indiana

The organizers in Illinois however apparently anticipated that they would be charged with coercion so they took care of it in advance by asking state employes to sign cards virtually saying I have not been coerced The membership card actually made as follows

I hereby voluntarily and of my own free will and accord make application for membership in the Troquois Illinois League

Social Club Idea Used

Just as the Hoosier Democratic club in Indiana is not incorporated but is conducted like a social club so the Illinois leaders have used the club idea and they have stationed collectors in every district to get the initial payments

The state government payroll in Illinois amounts to about $15 000 000 a year and to three years the two per cent levy is estimated to have furnished a fund of about $1 000 000 which is used for political organization purposes

The reason that so many observers are saying that Mr Roosevelt will carry the state is that they are influenced by a knowledge of the effects here of the Democratic organization throughout the state and by the noise and shouting made by the Roosevelt political machine in Cook county

Inquiry downstate on the other hand reveals that the trend is decidedly Republican Some estimates given privately by Republicans is that the downstate vote will bring a 300 000 majority for Governor Landon I doubt this but I would not be surprised if it ran as high as 200 000 Then if Cook county fails to give Mr Roosevelt a majority or even if it gives him as much as 100 000 the entire state would cast its electoral vote for Governor Landon by a 100 000 majority

Illinois is fighting ground when a margin of 100 000 out of 3 750 000 expected ballots is expected to decide the electoral vote

It's Really Going To Hurt

IT WAS hard to imagine the pained surprise of American workers when they discover that the new deal's social security legislation puts them into the big tax payor classification

Commencing with the first pay day in 1937 employers must deduct 1 per cent from the pay of each person affected by the old age benefit section of the act The 1 per cent deduction will continue until 1040

From 1040 to the end of 1042 the deduction will be 1½ per cent From the beginning of 1043 to the end of 1045 it will be 2 per cent From 1046 through 1048 it will be 2½ per cent After 1049 it will be 3 per cent

The money thus collected is supposed to be repaid to beneficiaries in the form of pensions after they reach the age of 65—if the worker quits working If he keeps on working he gets no pension Obviously since he is promised only $85.85 a week if he has been earning an average of $30 a week he will not want to stop Nobody can draw a pension until after 1941 In eldentally

Here's the setup for an earner who is 25 years old if he earns $20 a week until he is 65 years old

40 cents a week ($20.40 a year) in 1937 30
30 cents a week ($30.60 a year) in 1940 42
40 cents a week ($20.80 a year) in 1943-45
50 cents a week ($26.00 a year) in 1946 48
60 cents a week ($31.20 a year) after 1948

The higher the pay of course the higher the tax

Summing it up

The workingman pays the wage tax until he is 65 and then is entitled to receive a pension half as large as can be drawn and is being drawn now under old age benefit laws with no penalty at all

This is what Gov Landon was talking about when he charged the social security act was hastily drawn and should be repealed It is what he meant when he proposed that money for old age pensions should be obtained by a tax on all the people instead of by a tax on wage earners

Henry Ford who knows something about the subject of wages and the problems of workingmen has this advice I hope the American workingman will inquire into this for himself He knows as well as anyone that there is no something for nothing even in politics

That makes sense to every wage earner who knows what it would mean to lose 3 per cent of his pay each week

the serious challenges of the opposition is that nothing needs to be taken seriously in the campaign except his own bid for reelection But the time has come for plain speaking on business regimentation It's no joke

Last week the New York times supporting Mr Roosevelt because it wants to believe he would be different in a second term demanded that the President say whether or not he intended to revive NRA if elected Jame Roosevelt the President's son who is active in Massachusetts politics gave an interview to the Worcester Telegram saying his father intended to seek a constitutional amendment making the principles of the NRA the law of the land

Clearly Mr Roosevelt can not honestly evade so fundamental a question The country wants to know—his own supporters want to know—what his intentions are There is more to the campaign than green pastures still waters and assurances that everything will be all right Voters of both parties are demanding some of the particulars of the program for the next four years which the new dealers have in mind In 1932 they issued one program for voters and then followed another one themselves In 1936 apparently they don't intend to issue even a set of specific promises to break or to keep as the mood moves them

The new deal is spending $126 every second $7560 every minute $453 600 every hour $10 881 600 every day—money that comes from the pockets of all people rich and poor If all the rich of all the world pooled their wealth and gave it to the government it would be enough to run things as they are for only a brief period

The Roosevelt Record

6—Collectivism vs the Constitution.

The various acts of the New Deal make a complete picture of confusion each part fitting into a perfect design The monetary and fiscal policy parallels what was done in Russia after the fall of the Kerensky regime —Lewis W Douglas September 6 1935

President Roosevelt doesn't need to disband his Congress He already more powerful than Mussolini or Hitler —Newton D Baker Secretary of War under President Wilson May 26 1936

ON March 4 1933 President Roosevelt took the oath of office pledging himself to uphold the Constitution of the United States Prior to this he had frequently praised the advantages of our form of government with its separation of powers and its safeguarding checks and balances and had warned against concentrating too much power in Washington and restricting the sovereignty of the states

Yet from his first days in office Mr Roosevelt sponsored a series of measures which when put into effect concentrated unheard of powers in the hands of the federal executive and attempted to override state lines Under the NRA the President obtained wide powers to regulate hours of work and wages to fix prices to arbitrate labor disputes to regulate monopolistic practices and to control industry Under the AAA he was enabled to control agricultural production and even the manufacturing of goods made out of farm products Under the TVA the President took charge of a vast communalized experiment in governmental control of electric power In proposing the TVA to congress he explained that the project enters the wide fields of flood control soil erosion reforestation elimination from agricultural use of marginal lands and distribution and diversification of industry This is in brief state socialism

Through all of these and similar measures ran the idea of national planning—a synonym for the socialization of production This means paternalism upon a scale heretofore unknown in this country It could not be installed without fundamental alterations in the American social and political structure

Not until the supreme court by its unanimous decision knocked out the NRA did President Roosevelt disclose his attitude Then he made his famous reference to the Constitution as the product of horse and buggy days

Six weeks later he wrote to the chairman of the sub-committee of the house ways and means committee urging the passage of the Duffey Snyder coal bill and said I hope your committee will not permit doubts as to its constitutionality however reasonable to block the suggested legislation

Finally last January President Roosevelt summarized his conclusions in this field He revealed for the first time his own clear perception of the extent of the changes already made in the governmental structure

In thirty four months he declared in his radio address on the State of the Nation of Jan 3 1936 we have built up new instruments of public power In the hands of a people's government this power is wholesome and proper But in the hands of political puppets of an economic autocracy such power would provide shackles of the liberties of the people

Put in plain English this recognizes the fact that important changes in the form of our government have been made Vastly enlarged powers have been placed in the hands of the executive Mr Roosevelt's implication is obvious —in his hands the new powers will be wisely exercised but in some one else's hands they will be abused

The way in short has been paved for the establishment of a dictatorship

New York Notes

O O McIntyre's Diary of Fact Fancy and Folks

NEW YORK Oct 20 — Bob Burns doesn't make up all those gee haw names he mentions as living in his native Van Buren Ark I have a note from a lawyer there — Chman F Izard — who sends a special Bob Burns edition of the Van Bureun Press Argus A journalistic whoop for their No 1 Citizen

Just as W J Pokers put Clare more Okla on the map so has Burns less auspiciously made Van Buren known Every day the tiny burg swarms with auto tourists who want a peek at the place As a result the town has enjoyed what its proud citizens calls The Bob Burns Boom

The visitor buys something as a souvenir A high pressure Chamber of Commerce could not possibly achieve what the hillbilly comedian has by the simple expedient of spoofing his native heath But it is not all just acting His sentimentality is at times on the level He likes the town

Whenever he has a chance to slip the Hollywood halter he lights a shuck for Van Bureun to take up life where he left off and show off his Sunday clothe And of course on these visits he dredges much yokel humor for his radio broadcasts His income now nudges $150 000 a year

Another citizen of Van Buren writes He's so prosperous down here since the Burns Boom you can't get anybody to mow the lawn Mine would strain the neck of a giraffe to see above the cockle burrs All the lawn cutters have become guides for tourists

* * *

Many sizable burgs are known by names for former sons When a Santa Fe goes tootling through Emporia Kansas it's a cinch some passenger will observe This is William Allen Whites town Paducah Ky is known as Irvin Cobbs town And so on Even New York is known far and wide as O Henry's Bagdad on the Subway All of which is remindful of how shamelessly a Tammanyized city has immortalized many of its grafting officials But there is not even a marker at the little hotel in the 20's where O Henry was a gentle lodger and wrote so many of his immortal stories

* * *

No one is more disconsolate than a middle aged newspaperman who has just been sacked To him it's the end of the trail And a detour to some obscure journal is le pitche without hope One of the office failures to whom even cubs speak patronizingly Old Mr Scandso I tried to comfort one today who had found a new and younger face at his accustomed desk But I could put little ring into it I was too conscious of the lamentation Out of high drama into drab common places For few jobs appear exciting after a career of newspaping ing

Rumors are that the last American hold-out against the Paris exodus Gilbert White the portrait painter may soon abandon his chateau outside the city and move across the channel to London or return to America. White brother of Stewart Edward and a replica of Bruan in a Latin Quarter hat, has been the bounding spirit of the Place endorme hoop-de-do for 20 years Recently he visited the Ritzbar at cocktail time to find he was the only Yank there That inspired his decision to vamoose The Ritz ladies bar is no more by the way

* * *

A talker to himself was in today pleased as Punch over a triumph. On a lonely stretch of street he was mumbling great guns when conscious of footsteps behind He turned and beamed Rehearsing a banquet speech for tonight He thought it a dandy alibi—and one he can use in the future.

Behind the New

Campaigners Seem To Running Short on Material

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON Oct 20 — The political aides are wardly fresh and eager pose is a necessary scribed electoral routine however signs are beginning to develop thunderers are running bolts

More than one observer has a feeling the go started too early clarity of vision which affords they can see possible to maintain pitch of excitement until election day The disturbed however by from people tired of radio trade reports indicating listening in or another the way stations Tuesday election day will again slam they tell themselves

This election has been highly publicized in history It has been analyzed—and the stood

Unknowns

Most elusive factor is the great number voters who have registered year It is indicated 47 000 000 persons will year or 4 000 000 more than 1932

Inasmuch as the Democrats counting on a majority about 3 500 000 and Republicans are hoping for same it will be election may hasily be these mysterious 4 000 000 no one knows

It is true as Pegler that large registrations usually indicated against parties in power in municipal politics city bosses have counted registrations as high as popular middle class to descend upon

But there is more than election this year that an proportion of the newcomers WPA ers or CCC ers who going to the trouble to vote first time

Money

The Republican exchequer run low but not as low as stated A hasty canvass was made recently for additional funds Ex-Chairman Fletcher was sent out with a blank check and a fountain pen He returned canvass empty obtained substantial autographs to check the treasury

One inside situation which have caused an outpouring of the situation is this

Whenever are kept quarters fiction suggests funds are always easily carry out the idea But when comes from the Republican the treasury is always

One Man Campaign

There is one candidate on the ballot a Mr John Hoover director of Investigation Mr has apparently been for something or other the series of speeches around the country outlining the mission and what he has done Press copies of speeches ordinary politicians are handed in cheap mimeograph form Hoover's are printed by reproduction process which doubtedly put him to line for the next Pulitzer typography

Ordinarily you would think boss detective would limelight but Mr Hoover weekly magazine article

Will the politicians The article did not but it seems to be

Hoover has rubbed the special that they plan to at the next session of congress centralize federal cracies and that Hoover will finally find himself shorn of his arbitrary powers as well press agent

Tariff Muddling

Trade treatists within the department are already among themselves as they expect to start If chance after election want to start a campaign vision of existing treaties concessions up to date with exchange and quota Then they plan to congress for an extension of the temporary trade act under which working

In conversation the refer to the hopeless method of attempting tariff policies in order do not intend to back its tariff master

PENNSYLVANIA MAY SEE PRESIDENT AGAIN

Roosevelt Considers Second Invasion of Quaker State and Other Eastern Areas

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Oct 20 — Although what President Roosevelt will do in the final week of the election drive remained undecided there was a possibility today that he might go into Pennsylvania again and perhaps into one or two other eastern states

The only scheduled appearances of the President in the last week before the November 3 balloting are at the 50th birthday of the Statute of Liberty in New York harbor on Oct 28 and the windup address scheduled for Oct 31 in Madison Square Garden

Today the President continued a busy White House interlude in his campaign travels while aids prepared for his departure tonight on a drive into New England

Going from town to town by automobile most of the way the President will cover much of the northeastern section of the country The main address of the foray is planned for Worcester Mass on Wednesday night

A parked automobile will be his rostrum for speeches to people gathered in front of the state capitols at Providence R I Boston Mass and Hartford Conn The President will make similar speeches at Fall River and New Bedford Mass

The President hinted his New England topics would be much the same as those of his western speeches None of the themes for the speeches was announced however

On Thursday night Mr Roosevelt will be back at his home in Hyde Park N Y and expects to remain there until Sunday evening when he will head back for Washington generally recognized by most drivers—that the pedestrian always has the right of way

The pedestrian was here before the automobile he was here before the horse he explained and as such is privileged

He advised pedestrians however not to insist too vigorously on their right of way when an apparently obstinate driver is approaching

Among the Questions

Among the questions asked by the students were

Q—What precautions can be taken on South State street on rainy days and what is a safe speed?

A—At present the only precaution is to drive slowly The street has an unusually high crown and the sealer or tarry covering is slippery when wet The service department plans soon to sand the street or to sprinkle stone chips over it.

Q—What is being done to safeguard children at Hill and Main streets?

A—Teachers help them across most of the time Parking is prohibited near the intersection so that a clear view is available and our one motorcycle tries to visit each school area at least once a day Drivers become accustomed to the officer and naturally are more cautious

Q—What are some rules for driving in hilly country?

A—Brake the car with the motor as much as possible to save your brakes Any hill that can be made in high gear is usually safe to go down in high gear Watch the curves and hills carefully

Chief Marks also advocated the following use side streets as much as possible when going to and from the center of town to reduce congestion do not park on the left side of the street 24 hour warning light service at Main and Center streets slow drivers should keep to the right drivers should never park on cross walks

Mr Kratzer urged all drivers to get their licenses before Nov 1 when police will begin to enforce the state law Holders of temporary permits will be examined some time after Nov 1

Mr Roby closed the meeting by announcing certificates would be given to all motorists completing the three lesson course A lesson by Mr Kratzer Chief Marks and M E Baldwin secretary of the Marion Auto club will make up the course Mr Baldwin will be in charge of next weeks class and plans tentatively to show motion pictures

Minneapolis declaration against isolation and urged the principle of reciprocal trade agreements as an aid for opening foreign markets is desirable provided it is properly applied

The new deals program has not been so administered he charged

Gov Landons Minneapolis speech displeased some supporters and newspapers otherwise favorable to his candidacy There were editorial rebukes charges that th governor was expounding a policy of narrow nationalism James P Warburg built new deal because of its money policy nevertheless wrote a letter to Secretary of State Cordell Hull indorsing the administrations foreign trade policy as against that of Landon

Landons Albuquerque speech apparently was intended to recapture some of his lost ground and to do so by turning back the charge of narrow economic nationalism against the administration The speech goes far to reassure the farmer rather than the industrialist as to concession in reciprocal trade and specifically warns industrialists we shall use our reciprocal trade negotiations to protect the efficient American manufacturer and workman from the unfair competition of foreign nations which indulge in unfair currency depreciation subsidies and other unfair international practices to capture our domestic markets

But I am sure that American industry is fully alive to its obligations to the farmers and consumers of this country

Before reaching Albuquerque Gov Landon made ten platform appearances at Trinidad C Raton N M and Las Vegas N M Crowds turned out at each of these stops beginning with a surprise reception at Trinidad which interrupted the governors breakfast

At Raton center of a stock raising district Gov Landon attacked the reciprocal trade agreement policies of the new deal These agreements he said have permitted the importations of cattle and dairy products at the very time when our own farmers and cattle men were entitled to all the domestic market they could supply at reasonable prices to the consumer

Bear Protects Injured Trapper Against Coyotes

By The Associated Press

BURNS LAKE B C Oct 20—Arthur Gammon had a ripped mackinaw today as proof of his story of the terrific fight which protected him against coyotes

Carl Lee a trapper back tracked Gammons trail into the woods and found the bear snuggled for his winter sleep in the cave where Gammon said he had taken refuge in a snowstorm when he broke his leg Lee found Gammons mackinaw nearby

Gammon a prospector said he crawled into the cave after four days futile effort to reach his cabin on his hands and knees after a falling tree had crippled him With part of his mackinaw he had fixed a splint for his broken leg

He shared the cave with the bear he said until the storm abated and then resumed his slow journey toward his cabin the bear with him

On the tenth day he said he got lost but was aware by cries surrounding him kept at bay by the bear

Not until help reached him Gammon said did the bear hurry back to his cave and curl up for his winters sleep

DOCTORS SAY LEAVE CRASH VICTIMS ALONE

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA Oct 20 The innocent bystander who attempts to aid a person injured in an automobile or other accident was warned today by members of the American College of Surgeons that the best thing he can do is to do nothing

Unless an injured person is in imminent danger of further injury he or she is best left exactly in the position and on the spot where injured until a physician or surgeon arrives since attempts to aid generally result in complicating the injury the surgeons declared

The advice emanated from a symposium on fractures held as part of the 20th annual clinical congress being held this week

Dr James E M Thomson of Lincoln Neb declared that this warning held particularly true for persons with spinal injuries An attempt to help such a victim to his feet or sit him in a car for transportation to the hospital might result in crushing the spinal cord which would cause death or paralysis he said

KING IS ALWAYS SIR TO 'WALLY'

He Likewise Calls Her Wallis and She Curtsies on Meeting Monarch

By The Associated Press

LONDON Oct 29 King Edward doesn't call her "Wallie"

Mrs Ernest Simpson doesn't call him Davie

Wallie upsets Mrs Simpson she thinks it is crude She likes her own name Wallis instead

And even in informal moments her friends disclosed today the American divorcee to be calls the king sir

She also curtsies when she enters the presence—not low obeisance of a nervous American debutante or dowager being presented at court but just a graceful gesture of slightly bended knee and slightly lifted head

She knows the royal code and how and when to yield to it while painting a perfect refusal the friends related They illustrated thus

A recent dancing party was attended by the king and his American friend

Mrs Simpson tired wasn't dancing

Several men asked for the favor but she begged to be excused

Then came the king but he too met with a refusal—not quite a flat refusal but still a refusal

The king wasn't having any refusal He repeated his request

Is that a royal command she asked Mrs Simpson appealingly

The king laughed Mrs Simpson danced

THE first chapter of an original four-part story to be written by members of the Woman's club, was read by Mrs. Warren Sawyer at a meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Herman S. Rhu of Bellefontaine avenue. The story will be completed in installments written by Mrs. Rhu, Mrs. D. W. Brickley Jr. and Miss Grace Durfee.

Mrs. John A. Clark of Cleveland who is a houseguest of Mrs. Warren Sawyer, was a guest.

The club will meet next Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. P. Robinson of Brush Ridge.

A TABLE centered with fall flowers and lighted with green tapers held places for more than 20 members of the Searchlight Literary club of Prospect at a dinner and bridge last evening at Mrs. Crum's tearoom on John street. During the dinner hour Misses Ruth Lauer and Irma Louise Lodwig entertained with a piano duo, "Sweet Jasmine," Vedora, and Miss Ruth Harmon, a charter member of the club, gave a resume of the activities of the organization since its organization six years ago. Miss Margaret Stine, a new member, gave an informal talk. During a short business session plans were completed for a benefit picture show in November. Awards for high scores in bridge were won by Misses Ruth Lauer, Esther Click and Irma Louise Lodwig. A meeting Nov. 2 will be at the home of Misses Martha and Lucille Cheney.

ARRANGEMENTS have been completed for the annual guest luncheon and party to be given by the Elks Women's clubs Wednesday at the Elks clubrooms. Luncheon will be at 1 o'clock. Mrs. G. L. Rush Mrs. A. Schoen, Mrs. S. E. Sharrock, Mrs. H. C. Lautenslager and Mrs. Henry R. Stauffer of Marion, and Mrs. H. C. Schultz of Morral make up the committee in charge of plans for the affair.

Marion friends were among the guests when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor entertained at their home at Mt. Gilead Sunday evening. The occasion marked the birthday anniversary of the host and a pot-luck supper was served. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reuhrmund and son of Cardington, Mr. and Mrs. James Lauer of Prospect, Dr. and Mrs. Milton Axtheim of Caledonia and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoffman of Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crum of Marion, who were married recently, were honor guests when Mr. and and Mrs. Ralph Clark of LaRue, entertained at dinner Sunday. The occasion also honored Lowe Phelps of Claiborne and Mrs. J. E. Webb of Toledo, mother of the hostess, who were celebrating their birthday anniversaries. A large wedding cake centered the table at which Mr. and Mrs. Crum were seated, and a birthday cake provided a decorative note for the table arranged for the birthday celebrants. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe Phelps and children of Claiborne, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Webb of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunbar and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Connell of Marion, and Mary Anne and Dickie Clark. Mrs. Crum before her marriage was Miss Jeannette Dunbar.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fabian of Maple street entertained with a dinner bridge Sunday evening as a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sabino of Shelby who were married recently. Mrs. Sabino, a sister of Mrs. Fabian, was complimented with a shower during the evening and found her gifts in a treasure hunt. Guests included Mrs. L. Pellani, mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George De Nucci and daughter Barbara, Bruno and Albert Vellani of Columbus, Ben Benjal of Harpster, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Messenger and daughter Joan and Miss Marie Cutarelli of Marion. Awards for high scores at cards were won by Mrs. Jack Messenger and Mr. Vellani.

Mrs. Cloyce Newlove and Mrs. George Wingett won first and second honors in cootie at a meeting of the Coah and Coupon club Monday evening with Miss Jean Snyder of Pennsylvania avenue. The hostess served a two-course lunch, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Roy Snyder. A meeting will be held Nov. 10 with Miss Constance Butterworth of North Greenwood street.

Mrs. John C. Loyer of 607 Oak street gave a party Saturday afternoon to celebrate the tenth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Vivian. A Major Bowes amateur hour program was a feature of the content period, honors going to Rose Mary Jones and Elizabeth Ballinger. Mrs. Loyer was assisted in serving lunch by Mrs. L. W. Owens and Mrs. Emmett Jones. A lighted birthday cake decorated the table. Guests were Elizabeth Ballinger, Rose Mary Jones, Arlona Luellen, Joan Bonnette, Carol Bolt, Mary Lou and Patty Wormell, Marilyn Jean Greene, Dolores Owens, Ruth Miller, Kathryn Spidel and Myron Dale Loyer.

Misses Bess Snyder and Jeannette Powers were joint hostesses to the Burroughs Nature club last evening at the home of Miss Snyder on South High street. Arrangements were made to sponsor a benefit picture show in the near future. Plans for this will be in charge of the finance chairman Miss Lola Brookshire. Miss Grace Colvin and Miss Marion Washburn were appointed to take charge of the purchasing and placing of feeding stations for the birds this winter, and Miss Colvin will arrange for the purchase of feed throughout the season. Miss Caroline Dewar, president of the club, read an article on "Conservation."

The program hour included informal talks by John Imbody and Thomas Clack, winners of scholarship awards in the model coach contest sponsored by the Fisher Body Craftsman's guild. The young men explained in detail the process of making the coaches and also displayed their prize-winning models. The program was arranged by Miss Grace Colvin. A large basket filled with yari-colored dahlias and fall foliage carried out a decorative note. Appointment for a lunch served by the hostesses, were in keeping with the Hallowe'en season. The club will meet Nov. 16 with Mrs. C. H. Conley on South State street with Miss Marie Buehrmund as assisting hostess.

A potluck supper was followed by cards when Mrs. W. Dulin of Chestnut street entertained the An Fait club Saturday evening. Five tables were filled for euchre, honors going to Mrs. Curtis Pace, Mrs. Marion Lloyd, Mrs. Jay Scribner, D. R. Dulin and Harry Gruber. Mrs. Harry Gruber and Jay Scribner received the lone hand awards. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dulin were guests. Mrs. Cora Paddock of Union street will entertain the club in two weeks.

A symposium on "These United States" featured a program presented at a meeting of the All Arts club of Prospect last evening at the home of Mrs. George O. Thomas of Prospect. "Present Day Problems" was the discussion theme, with Miss Ruth Hecker presenting the topic "Unemployment," Mrs. D. F. Stone, "Conservation of Natural Resources," and Mrs. E. A. Kimmel, "Crime." Miss Hecker led in a discussion of the topics. Mrs. Wilfred Knickel presided for the singing of a group of patriotic songs. Mrs. E. R. Rector presided for devotionals and roll call preceding the program hour. Mrs. E. F. Lauer, president, presided for a short business session. Refreshments were served during a social hour. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. John T. Boxwell.

Mrs. Arthur Riley of 803 Wilson avenue entertained a group of young people Saturday evening for the pleasure of her daughter, Thelma, whose birthday anniversary was Sunday. Contest awards were won by Miss Doris Hawkins and Miss Kathryn Rupp. The hostess was assisted in serving a lunch by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Burton Riley. The celebrant received a number of gifts. Present were Misses Doris Hawkins, Betty Richards, Kathryn Rupp, Jean Ellen Armbruster, Martha Lee Walker, Dorothy Tolle, Anna Brumfield and Kathryn Baker of Marion and Eileen Hinamon of Bucyrus.

Mrs. Arthur W. Bacon was named a delegate to the Central District conference to be held here Oct. 27 and 28, when the Current Topic club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Beatty on South Vine street. Antiques brought by the members provided the roll call topics and Mrs. Beatty gave a talk on "The Story of an Antique Pipe." Mrs. Harry T. Williams contributed a piano solo, "Rondo Carpriccioso," by Mendelssohn. Mrs. C. S. Mooney of East Center street will entertain the club in two weeks.

Plans were made for a Hallowe'en party at which husbands of the members will be guests, at a meeting of the Loyal Nine club Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Forest Hayman on Park boulevard. The party will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Seebach on Henry street, Oct. 30. Progressive bunco entertained the club, awards going to Mrs. Hani Miller and Mrs. A. L. Kelly. Mrs. William Paessler was a guest. The next club meeting will be Nov. 6.

Mrs. Clifford Clark and Mrs. Albin Bippus were enrolled as new members at a meeting of the Advance club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. J. Mautz on South Seffner avenue. Mrs. K. H. Marshall, treasurer, presented the budget for the year, and 26 patronesses were reported enrolled by the club. Mrs. C. E. Cox gave a poem, "The Ballade of Fact and Fiction," by Brander Matthews and the following papers on "Exponents of the Realistic Novel," were given: "The Uncompromising Realist, Theodore Dreiser," by Mrs. D. T. Mills; "Satirist of American Life, Sinclair Lewis," Mrs. L. C. Wogan, and "Ohio's Native Son, Sherwood Anderson," prepared by Mrs. R. H. Wise and read by Miss Clara Kowalke. Roll call responses were names of favorite novelists. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. L. C. Wogan of South Prospect street.

A surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Severns of Fahey street, last evening was in honor of the former's birthday anniversary. Guests included members of the Friday Night club and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Gibson. Euchre was played, awards going to Mrs. Clyde Gibson and Ernest Phillians. Mrs. E. Phillians and Clyde Gibson were consoled. Mrs. Harley Cardiff received the gallopping award. A regular meeting of the club will be held Oct. 30 at the home of Mrs. Earl Sargent on East Center street.

California was the study topic at a meeting of the Sesame club yesterday afternoon with Mrs. R. F. Brillhart of Oak Grove avenue. Members responded to roll call with interesting facts about the state, after which the following papers were given:

"Meet the Navajos," Mrs. J. L. Jolley; "Adventures in Death Valley," Mrs. A. C. Brown; "Among the Big Trees of California," prepared by Mrs. Earl Miller and read by Mrs. Earl E. Thomas. Mrs. H. L. Topliff gave the report of current events.

To give the club a detailed report of the central district convention here next week, Mrs. Jolley was appointed to report on art, Mrs. W. E. Miley on conservation, Mrs. E. A. Schultz on finance, and Mrs. C. H. Lindsey to give a report on general items of interest. Miss Jean Brillhart closed the program with a piano selection. The club will meet Nov. 2 with Mrs. G. M. Roberts of Girard avenue.

Mrs. William Guy of 473 Elmwood drive entertained a party of children at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of the fourth birthday of her daughter Marilyn. Games and contests were played after which refreshments were served. Prizes in the contests were won by Peggy Berry, Patty Guy, Sue Smith, Sonny Dowler and Junior Faust.

Those present were Norma Fleck, Sally Cohrs, Sue Smith, Janet Gifford, Patty Guy, Elizabeth Smith, Carol Anne Smith, Roberta Heininger, Janet Howison, Ruth Faust, Peggy Berry, Shirley Arbogast, Junior Faust, Donald Noggle, Sonny Dowler, Tommy Heineman, Roger Graetz, David Reynolds, and Francis Guy.

ROUT THAT COLD

Let It Not Hang on Thru the Use of Half-way Measures!

Beware of the "common cold"!

The "common cold", doctors will tell you, is the cause of more serious trouble than anything else.

Many a person who is in a pneumonia jacket today had but a "common cold" yesterday!

Neglect no cold. Take no chances with your treatment.

Treat a cold with a cold medicine, not a "cure-all". Treat it also with internal medicine. A cold is an internal infection.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is what a cold requires. It is, first of all, a cold tablet, made expressly for colds. Secondly, it is internal medication, fourfold in effect.

Here's what it does:

First, it opens the bowels, an advisable step in treating a cold.

Second, it checks the fever in the system, a vital step.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar-coated as well as plain. The sugar-coated are exactly the same as the regular, except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

When you feel a cold coming on, trust to no makeshift methods. Adopt the proven course of safety—take Bromo Quinine.

Taken promptly, these tablets will often break up a cold in 24 hours and that's the speed you want.

Bromo Quinine tablets contain nothing harmful and are safe to take. Let them be your first thought in case of a cold.

Ask your druggist firmly for Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and accept no substitute.

The few pennies' cost may save you a world of trouble.

The Wrong Murderer

By HUGH CLEVELY

...came a babel of excited conversation.

Very softly she lef the room and peered up the stairs She could hear nothing For a moment she hesitated Then nerving herself determinedly for the effort she mounted the stairs to the small landing A door was open and she stepped forward and looked into the room beyond

What she saw made her shrink back suddenly with a gasp of horror On the floor were lying the figures of three men Police whistles were blowing in the street there was a sound of banging at the front door of the house Ruth went back on to the landing outside the room

Mr Bassett Mr Bassett she called But there was no answer She was alone in the house with the three men lying on the floor of the room

Swiftly she descended the stairs The front door was giving in a moment it would burst open She must not be found in the house She went down the steps to the basement and crossed the kitchen to the back door Luck was with her no one was there A few seconds later she was walking quickly along the street away from the house

* * *

But though she was free for the moment she realized that she was in a terrible position The police would know she had been in the house when that man's death took place Her car was still outside the front door

If only she thought desperately she could find Mahony he would be able to tell her what she ought to do Perhaps he would be at his rooms by now She entered a telephone box and rang up his number but his landlady told her he had not yet returned

At last she thought of a plan A letter written and posted to Mahony now would reach him by the evening post She must write to him and tell him of her plight and ask him to come and see her

She must also find a hiding place where she could wait safely for him in case he did not get her letter till late that night Her guardian owned an unoccupied house in the St Johns Wood road If only she could get into that house she ought to be pretty safe there for a few hours That would be her best hiding place

She entered a little stationer's bought a packet of note-paper and envelopes wrote a brief note to Mahony and posted it Near the post box was a large cinema and at the sight of it she paused again In order to reach the house in St Johns Wood she had practically to cross London Mahony would not receive her letter before about nine tha evening if he came in late he would not receive it till midnight or later It would be safer for her she reflected to cross London after dark than in broad daylight In the meantime she could remain fairly safe hidden inside that cinema

She bought a ticket and entered the darkness of the picture theater With a sigh of relief she sank into the softly cushioned seat Here for five or six hours she would be safe

* * *

Mahony waited for about a couple of hours in the empty house in S Johns Wood Road where Lee Ramsden had sent him The time passed very slowly he chafed at his inactivity All the time he was wondering what was happening what Lawson was doing and whether Bassett and his band of toughs would have had time to take advantage of the warning Lee-Ramsden was supposed to have sent them

It was about four in the afternoon when he heard a sound of wheels on the gravel drive that led up to the house Looking through the window he saw that car had drawn up at the front door Two men were dismounting from it one of whom was carrying a suitcase Thank heaven thought Mahony here at last was his disguise

He went down and opened the front door One of the men spoke to him

Is your name Mahony? he asked

Yes answered Mahony

I and my friend have been sent here with directions to disguise you so that no one can recognize you said the man

Good Come along inside in ...ited Mahony

He showed them into the empty drawing room

Is this job going to take long? he asked

Half an hour or so answered the man It isn't easy to disguise a man in a way that will defy detection Now do you mind standing here well in the light and keeping quite still?

He stood in front of Mahony looking him up and down while his companion wandered restlessly about the room

Stand quite still he said

And as he spoke he made a bad mistake His glance left Mahony staring over his shoulder at his companion who was just behind Mahony and there was an expression of tense excitement in his eyes that could not be accounted for by any interest he took in transforming Mahony's appearance

Mahony turned sharply moving slightly to one side That movement just saved him The clubbed revolver wielded by the man behind him missed his head and struck him a glancing blow on the shoulder

That blow hurt Mahoney It also angered him It seemed to him that everywhere he went he encountered treachery and he was fed up with it. With a sharp vicious movement he brought over his right fist in a short hook and all the strength of his anger and all the power of his right shoulder were behind the blow

It took the man who had just struck at him fairly on the angle of the jaw With a heavy bump the man sprawled flat on his back

And then Mahony sprang at the other man as he did so the man sprang to meet him There was a brief fierce interchange of blows each man hitting out with all his strength The fight lasted about 20 seconds A tremendous right cross to the jaw followed by a left hook to the stomach ended it Mahony's opponent sank to the ground out for the count.

Both his adversaries were for the time being out of action He stepped quickly across the room and opened the suit case which they had brought. It contained nothing but a coil of strong rope Mahony laughed a trifle grimly at that.

He turned out the pockets of the two men then tied them securely with the rope they had brought with which to tie him There was nothing of any great interest in their pockets but both men he noticed, had cards of membership of the Golden Centipede club Evidently that club was used by nearly all Lawson's band of crooks

Leaving the two men tied up on the floor of the empty drawing room he left the house

Mahony gets information from Kennedy, tomorrow, which surprises him

HALLOWE'EN JOKERS WARNED BY CHIEF

Destruction of Property Won't Be Tolerated

Halloween pranksters were warned today in a statement issued by Police Chief William E Marks that destruction of property apparently by early fun seekers will not be tolerated

It isn't difficult for Hallowe'eners to distinguish between having fun and the wilfull destruction of public or private property the chief said Numerous complaints have been made to the police department that youthful celebrators have tossed rocks and bricks on front porches and have marred the body paint on numerous new cars he pointed out.

That type of celebrater if we are able to locate them will be turned over either to municipal court of Juvenile Judge Oscar Gast' Chief Marks said Another report of Hallowe'eners blocking several streets in the west side of the city brought forth still further warning from the chief

He pointed out the danger involved in a particular case where a street had been blocked at a dimly lighted location with a pile of large rocks and another which was blocked when pranksters moved a concrete mixer into the center of the road Good clean fun without the destruction of property or the possibility of endangering others would very likely go unnoticed the chief added

TODAY—Ekins' Time Soon Will Be Slow

H. R. Ekins, first-class newspaper man has gone around the globe by airplane covering 24,720 miles in 16 days, 14 hours, 36 minutes. Such a trip seems wonderfully fast now Soon it will seem wonderfully slow Air progress is rapid Because it was done scientifically by machinery the eighteen-day trip seems less romantic than the Nelly Bly seventy-odd day trip that beat Jules Verne's "Around the World in Eighty Days" Nelly Bly clever newspaper woman knew how to make it interesting going out of her way to travel by elephant camel jinrick shaw, etc Flying around the world costs about $5 000

Flying across oceans and continents has already become a matter of course A paragraph was printed here about Maj Gardiner who flew from New York to Moscow 5 000 miles in 68 hours 52 minutes of flying time

Frank Schroth editor and pub lisher of the Scranton Republican has recently returned from a similar New York to Moscow trip made in fifty-seven flying hours twelve hours less than Maj Gardiner's flying time Mr Schroth says It depends on the planes you catch not on yourself I was fortunate in making the record breaking Hindenburg forty two hour trip as part of my journey

Around the world about as fast as the sun seems to go will come eventually From Chicago around the world and back to Chicago in five days will come soon

Some Day—Far Away

Some day some woman let us hope will balance her fashion budget decide just what she wants to wear and then wear it as men have done but the day is far away These are some of the hats from which your wife daughter sister will choose this season

Hats shaped like East Indian war shields hats heavy in gold embroidery flat pillbox turbans gold braided Russian style hats off the face with tall tiara fronts hats of Persian lamb and embroidered felt small toques dipped down front and back covered with soft feathers the military touch predominating

Why do you suppose do women take so much trouble to spoil faces and heads naturally beautiful? It can not all be the fault of hatmakers

Butler Asks Drive

Gen Smedley D Butler retired fighting major general of the United States marines asks the Women's Christian Temperance Union to start a campaign against drunken automobile drivers and also help peace by working for a constitutional amendment forbidding the President or congress to send troops out of the country

You can not change men by legislation as was discovered in our prohibition mistake you must change the men from the inside

Besides if we have more wars the first thing would be to send American fighters out of the country in airplanes to the capital city of the attacking nation to gas bomb and wreck with as little loss of time as possible

Wars will be prevented when rulers of the attacking nations including the richest men know that beginning a war will mean having your cities destroyed

Murder in India

Hindus and Mohammedans continue their killing in Bombay one religion laying in wait for the other fifty killed 400 wounded thus far An epidemic is feared as garbage collectors will not work disliking to be shot Hindus have music in their temples their queer gods are supposed to like it Mohammedans despise music in temples Mohammed and his one god Allah, do not like it So Mohammedans and Hindus murder each other to please their gods that actually have no existence—according to our ideas We may be mistaken, they think us mistaken in our religious beliefs

War Costs Money

War costs money even when you have nothing to do with it and are not responsive The big war cost Uncle Sam ten thousand millions In one lump when our gallant allies agreed to welch on their debts and cost him other tens of millions Even the little Spanish civil war cost us money United States exports to Spain are cut down 85 per cent Uncle Sam used to sell Spain many motor trucks busses lubricating oils etc no selling now And we did not even sell any ammunition to make up for it—fortunately

Good News from Quake

It is good news that the earthquake in Venice contented itself with shaking down old chimneys destroyed no ancient buildings or works of art

An earthquake in Venice is inconvenient for you cannot follow the usual course and rush from your house into the street. If you rush from your house you may land in the canal although there are streets squares and narrow paths along canals

Gondolas overcrowded foundered and many citizens drowned in the canals No dead or wounded in Venice although there were some elsewhere — fifteen killed many wounded when a church bell tower fell

It always surprises and shocks the pious when a church or other religious edifice is shaken down as though the Ruler of the Universe could be expected to suspend his own laws for individual cases The great earthquake at Lisbon which brought down the stone roof of the great cathedral killing thousands of women and children that had gathered beneath it for protection is supposed to have undermined the faith of many

SCOUT PILGRIMAGE TO BE DISCUSSED

Leaders Will Meet at Camp Owens Wednesday To Consider Plans

Plans for the participation of all troops of Marion county in the Harding pilgrimage Nov 1 will be discussed at a meeting of the scoutmasters round table at Camp Owens tomorrow night at 7 30. The meeting will be in charge of Alfred H Exton Sr district commissioner and Alfred Donithen, chairman of the Pilgrimage committee will outline plans for each troop.

Scouts from nearby counties have already indicated that they will attend Last year the pilgrimage to the tomb of Mr Hard...ing in honor of his birthday drew more than 300. A feature of each year's observance is the placing on the tomb of a wreath sent by President Roosevelt He usually designates a representative either an army officer or some local resident

The National Acorn achievement awards will also be considered tomorrow night. A report on plans for the awards, which are given troops for the enrollment of new scouts, will be made by Dr Frank Mann district chairman The meeting will be held before the open fire and refreshments will be served

The use of radio sets in British Malaya has increased three fold within a year and a broadcasting station will be opened at Singapore this year

SEA SCOUTS GIVEN RANK ADVANCEMENT

Bridge of Honor Held at Epworth Church.

Certificates for advancement in rank were presented to two sea scouts last night as the bridge of honor was held at Epworth M. E. church aboard an imitation ship constructed for the occasion. Those advanced were Carl Rech Jr. to leader of crew No. 2, and Eagle Scout Oliver Rowley who was granted a mate's commission.

The meeting was in charge of G. H. Power, who is skipper of the sea scout ship "Paul Siple" which is sponsored by the church for senior scouts of troop No. 3. The ship is rated as council flagship and its members now number 15. Its commodore is Harry L. Dowler, who welcomed the new members.

The ceremonies were opened with a formal reception for visitors aboard ship and with invocation by Dr. E. T. Waring. Short talks were made by Arthur S. Brooks, scout executive, Dr. V. C. Kissell, chairman of the ship committee, and Dr. Waring who told of his experiences as a scout leader.

A special Hallowe'en party for the members of the crew was announced for Oct. 30.

HOPKINS FACES COURT IN WPA CONTROVERSY

Ordered To Show Why He Should Not Reveal Records to Jersey Republicans.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—Harry L. Hopkins, works progress administrator, was ordered by the federal district court here today to show in court Monday why he should not be compelled to open records of his office to New Jersey Republican leaders.

Charging a "breach of trust" and that WPA records had been used by the Democratic administration for campaign purposes, a group of the New Jersey Republicans asked the court to direct Hopkins to make WPA's files available to them.

Immediately afterward Justice Joseph W. Cox issued the order setting the hearing.

The petition charged that officials of the present administration were guilty of waste and extravagance.

The petitioners said they wished access to the records in order to present to the people of the United States their side of a controversy with Hopkins over the handling of billions of dollars of emergency funds.

MT. VERNON YOUTH ASSESSED $100 FINE

Two Companions In Acoident-Theft Mixup Here Are Sent to Juvenile Court.

Charges filed against three Mt. Vernon negro youths in connection with the theft of an automobile accessory and leaving the scene of an accident were disposed of in Marion court yesterday.

Carl F. Blake, 18, charged with removing a fender light with intent to steal, was fined $100 and costs when he pleaded guilty to the charge in municipal court, Horace Rouse 17, and Donald McGee, 17, alleged accomplices of Blake, were turned over to Juvenile Judge Oscar Gast yesterday afternoon by police.

The pair admitted their participation in the affair, court officials said, and were ordered to pay the court costs and repair the damage to the automobile with which their car collided. They were placed on probation under Juvenile Judge Clyde W. Purdy of Mt. Vernon. Blake was released on bond after making arrangements to pay the fine assessed in municipal court.

The charges grew out of a series of incidents which occurred Saturday night. Blake allegedly removed a fender light from a car belonging to Walter Beery of 531 Olney avenue, parked near the Lectonia building on West Center street. When they hurriedly drove away they backed into a car driven by Donald Glemming of 147 Davids street, it was reported.

The collision broke off the rear license plate on the car driven by the youths and they were arrested when they returned to the police station an hour later to report that the license had been lost.

Harding To Meet Strong Ashland Grid Team Friday

N. C. O. LEAGUE TILT TO BE PLAYED UNDER FLOODLIGHTS HERE

Marion's Opponents, Unbeaten This Season, Making Bid for Loop Honors

Harding High gridders and other North Central Ohio league teams today were preparing for a renewal of hostilities this week which will mark the mid-season of conference competition.

The Marion Presidents will entertain one of the most formidable opponents to invade the Harding stadium when Ashland comes here for a floodlight game Friday night while other loop games will bring together the Mansfield Tygers and Shelby on the latter's field and take Galion into the camp of the Mt. Vernon club.

Marion's possibilities in remaining in the first division of the N. C. O. standings depends largely upon the outcome of Friday night's stand against the strong Ashland eleven. The Presidents are tied for second position with Mt. Vernon both teams having won and lost in two league encounters while Ashland and Mansfield head the loop neither team having been defeated in two starts.

Mansfield is favored to win over Shelby which would keep the Tygers in the top spot and Mt. Vernon is picked to take the measure of Galion. In event that the predicted outcome of the two games is correct it would be necessary for the Presidents to stop Ashland to remain in the first division.

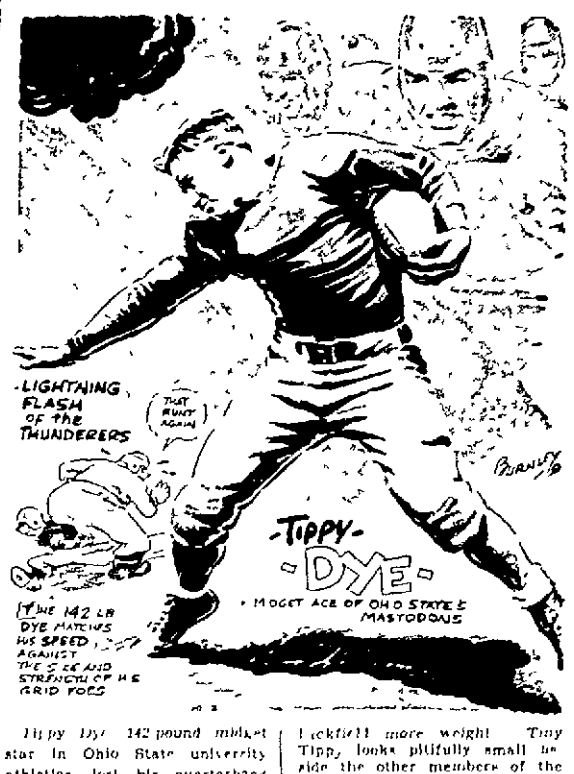
Coach Carl Cramer's proteges fell before an aggressive Findlay team 27 to 6 last week as N. C. O. teams faced non league opponents. Mansfield suffered a 6 to 2 defeat at the hands of the Blue Streaks of Sandusky High. Galion tripped Madison 2 to 0. Ashland romped over Dover 32 to 0. Shelby stopped Bucyrus 28 to 13 and Mt. Vernon's team did not have a game.

The strength of the squad Ashland High will send here Friday night is measured by the fact that for the first time in the history of the school its team has marched to victory in its first four conflicts without being scored upon. In the opener Ashland defeated Norwalk 18 to 0 downed Galion in its first league opposition 27 to 0 then scored a 77 to 0 win over Shelby and last week romped to a comparatively easy victory over Dover.

Galion's grid team is the only opponent which both Marion and Ashland have faced this season. The Presidents looked impressive in handing the Gallonites a 18 to 0 defeat in the first game under the floodlights of Harding stadium two weeks ago. The contest was played on a rain soaked gridiron and neither team was up to its usual standard although the Bandmen's was the same for both squads.

Mansfield N. C. O. champs of 1935-36 remains as the favorite to repeat for the crown of the current season with Ashland to ring as the only club standing in the way of a perfect league season for the Tygers. Marion and Mt. Vernon still retain the possibilities of landing in the top spot in the event that teams already in the lower division succeed in upsetting the undefeated leaders.

TIPPY DYE SHIFTED



Tippy Dye 142 pound midget star in Ohio State university's athletics lost his quarterback position in the Buckeyes' grid lineup in yesterday's practice session as Coach Francis Schmidt juggled players to make the team more potent according to news dispatches from Columbus. Jumping Joe Williams took Dye's place giving the Bucks heckfield more weight. Tiny Tippy looks pitifully small beside the other members of the squad but has been giving a brilliant demonstration of brains speed and courage despite the Bucks' setbacks so far this year. He is rated as a crackerjack picker as well as a mighty elusive runner. (Sketch by Burney King, Features Syndicate Inc. Copyright)

Big Crowd Sees Higami Defeat Von Bromberg

As a capacity crowd roared its approval Count Von Bromberg Germany's bewhiskered and born Dutch grappler was forced to face and admit defeat at the hand of the diminutive Japanese warrior Higami in one of the featured matches on last night's wrestling program at the Marion Steam Shovel arena.

The Swede Hanson Jack Dumar match went into a final fall with the platinum blonde Swede wrestler taking the honors when the Toledoan was disqualified for roughness by Referee Red Moon of Detroit.

Higami master of jiu jitsu Jackets and catch as catch can artist his prowess in handling the heretofore unconquerable Von Bromberg. The Jap won the toss of the coin at the start of the scrap and elected to use the Jackets in the initial fall. Higami won the first toss but the out spoken German demanded a reToss on the grounds that Referee Moon had picked up the coin before it showed it to the Count.

Jap Wins Second Toss

The Jap won the second toss and in the same fashion took the measure of Von Bromberg in two decisive and consecutive falls. Running the Jackets which stretch from the shoulder to just above the knee proved another test of the Japs patience as Count Von Bromberg vigorously objected to wearing the paraphernalia.

Higami took his time in working on the Count in the opening fall and toyed with the German through 12 minutes before putting on the works. The Count's feeble efforts at retaining a hold were easily outdone by the Jap expert. Higami then became active applying an after eight minutes of the fall had passed.

The Count hurriedly doffed the jacket and refused to return to his feet and when finally persuaded to Higami opened with the devastating barrage which led him to victory. The Jap tossed and catapulted Von Bromberg into the ropes and finally through the strands and to the floor. The German struggled into the ring near the end of the referee's count and Higami applied a deadly hammerlock which made his opponent concede the fall at the end of 12 minutes.

Reverting to catch as catch can wrestling for the second round Higami demonstrated in no small measure his abilities. He floored Von Bromberg with a series of body spills and then applied a hammerlock to the German's left arm to take the second fall in 30 second.

Hanson Meets Dumar

Swede Hanson replaced Dick Gerber as the opponent for the tough Jack Dumar of Toledo. Hanson although lighter than the Toledoan displayed many times over his superior wrestling ability. Dumar's choking gouging and slugging stopped Hanson in the first round. The fall was scored in six minutes after Dumar's barrage of punches to Hanson's jaw and a body press to pin his shoulders.

Hanson returned and after taking plenty of punishment retaliated in the manner of a cornered wildcat. He drove Dumar through the ropes and elbow jolted him to the canvas. Hanson used a body press for the fall at the end of 14 minutes. The deciding round was just five minutes old when Referee Moon after repeatedly warning Dumar disqualified him. Dumar's choke hold had the better of Hanson but the Toledoan applied it once too often and lost the match by default.

Dan Cady of Boston won a place in the memory of Marion fans by his clever and fast display of clean wrestling against the Albuquerque pugilist Jack Purdin. Cady took all the rough stuff that Purdin could administer and then teaming with a mile of victory waded in to hand the New Mexican more than he had bargained for.

The Bostonian looked especially good in the fast finish which brought an admiring crowd to its feet. Cady slammed Purdin into all corners of the ring as he manhandled him to win the fall in 17 minutes.

SCHMIDT JUGGLES BACKFIELD TO GIVE BUCKS MORE PUNCH

'Jumping Joe' Williams Replaces Tippy Dye at Quarterback Position

By The Associated Press

Coach Francis A. Schmidt again is juggling the backfield of his Ohio State juggernaut in an effort to make it more potent.

Tippy Dye lost his quarterback post in yesterday's scrimmage to Jumping Joe Williams moved there from half. The shift added weight to the Buckeye backfield combination still far from approaching ponderous dimensions.

Kabeao held down left half Johnny Beveridge was his running mate and Jim MacDonald acted as fullback in the long workout. Pete Calos tackle injured against Northwestern Saturday is unlikely to see service against Indiana this week.

On the Cincinnati front the Bearcats drilled on line play and aerial offense to prepare for the Buckeye loop contest Saturday against Dayton the Flyers have been a jinx outfit for Cincinnati although meeting them seldom in recent campaigns.

At the opposite end of the state Cleveland both Western Reserve and Baldwin Wallace took things easy. As a reward for their triumph over Baldwin Wallace the Red Cats had a day off. Only the Jackets second eleven was required to drill as this week is an open date. Reserve meets Oberlin and Case Spurts Toledo Rockets.

Miami university went through a light scrimmage as Coach Will Watt warned against overconfidence from winning four straight games. The Redskins who play Ohio U. Saturday were cheered by the return of Robert Birkenstein halfback who was injured in the Ariel game opener.

Coach George Gauthier moved Leo Walker of Akron sophomore halfback up to the first eleven for his work in the Xavier game. Gauthier's disappointing Ohio Wesleyan eleven engages Marshall in a Buckeye loop tilt Saturday.

Hubbell Voted Most Valuable Player in National League

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND O. Oct. 20—Carl Owen Hubbell the lanky, left hander who hails from Meeker, Okla. but does his pitching for the New York Giants today brought New York a monopoly on baseball's "most valuable player" awards for 1936 to follow up the "Subway" World series.

Hubbell was almost unanimously chosen as the most valuable player in the National league. Lou Gehrig first man of the infield of the Yankees was named the American league's most valuable performer last week.

At the same time the southpaw screw ball ace rolled during the season as the Giants one man pitching staff became the second player in baseball league history to win the award twice. In 1933 when the Giants also won the pennant largely because of Hubbell's dazzling King Carl was named as the most valuable player.

Rogers Hornsby now manager of the St. Louis Browns received the award when it was made by the league on two occasions. He was named in 1925 as a member of the St. Louis Cardinals and in 1929 with the Chicago Cubs.

The 33-year old Hubbell had only one serious rival in the voting by a committee representing the Baseball Writers Association of America that was Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean of the Cardinals the only other pitcher ever to take the award. Hubbell was the unanimous first choice of the six writers who cast their votes while Dean was named second five times and third once. Two members of the committee of eight made no selections.

Counting on the basis of 10 points for first place vote nine for second etc. Hubbell received 60 points and Dean 53. Third place [illegible] went to Billy Herman of the Cubs with 37, fourth to Joe Medwick of the Cards with 36, fifth to Paul Waner of Pittsburgh with 29 and sixth to Del Ott of the Giants with 28.

The voting follows [illegible] the performances of the players as shown in the season's pitching and batting records. Hubbell although he took a drubbing from the Yankees on his second World series appearance chalked up victories against six defeats for 15 averages winning 16 in succession. Dean who appeared in 31 games won 2 and lost 13.

WALKED 600 MILES TO SEE EDWARD VIII

By International News Service

BELGRADE—Two schoolboys of Derventa Yugoslavia have walked 600 miles to catch a glimpse of King Edward VIII.

When they heard that the king would visit Dalmatia in the course of his holidays the boys ran away from home and walked through Croatia and Bosnia to Dalmatia.

They arrived at Trogir the day before the king visited it and slept out that night on the shore.

Next day the king arrived and they saw him. That evening they started their long journey home. They arrived there—having walked 600 miles in 19 days.

ZEH ON COMEBACK TRAIL AMONG OHIO COLLEGE SCORERS

Tied With Marietta Man for Second Place, Led Nation's Point Makers Last Year.

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS O. Oct. 20—Ray Zeh Western Reserve's sturdy fullback who led the nation's football scorers a year ago with 112 points is on his way back to the peak again.

Even if he doesn't scale the heights he scaled in 1935 he will be more valuable than he was a year ago his coach said today.

Big Bill Edwards former Wittenberg star and now coach of the unbeaten Red Cats give Zeh much of the credit for the sterling showing of his team. The Cats have won five in a row.

Zeh is tied for second place in the scoring race with 36 points in five games but his forward passes have accounted for twice that many points. The Red Cats have chased 23 touchdowns across the last white line this season and more than half have been on aerials tossed by Zeh.

The 1935 champ got away to a slow start scoring but 14 points in the first three games but he barged back with 18 against Akron last week end and eight against Baldwin-Wallace Saturday to land in the runner up berth tied with Mayes of Marietta. Norman Schoen of Baldwin-Wallace is on top with 49 points in four contests to lead of the field.

Here are the scoring leaders:

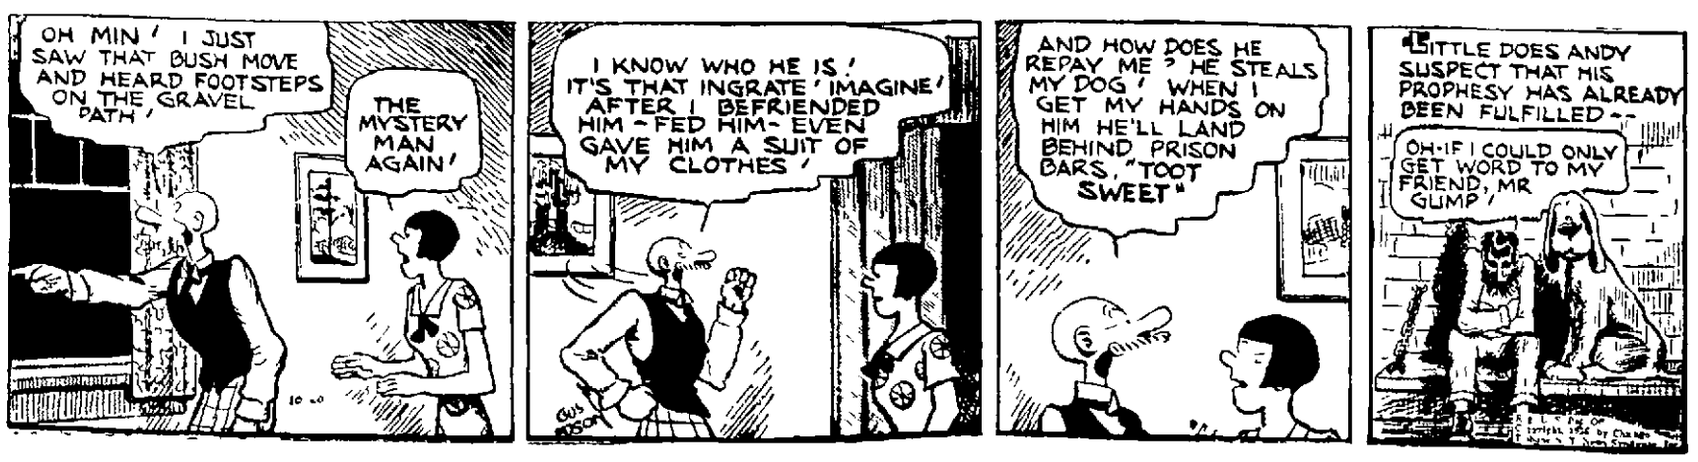
The Gumps — By Gus Edson



OH MIN! I JUST SAW THAT BUSH MOVE AND HEARD FOOTSTEPS ON THE GRAVEL PATH,
THE MYSTERY MAN AGAIN!
I KNOW WHO HE IS! IT'S THAT INGRATE 'IMAGINE' AFTER I BEFRIENDED HIM - FED HIM - EVEN GAVE HIM A SUIT OF MY CLOTHES!
AND HOW DOES HE REPAY ME? HE STEALS MY DOG! WHEN I GET MY HANDS ON HIM HE'LL LAND BEHIND PRISON BARS, "TOOT SWEET"
LITTLE DOES ANDY SUSPECT THAT HIS PROPHESY HAS ALREADY BEEN FULFILLED-- OH-IF I COULD ONLY GET WORD TO MY FRIEND, MR GUMP!

STOCKS YIELD PART OF GAINS

Steels Lead Recession While Utilities Oils Specialties Buck Trend

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK Oct. 20—The stock market turned drowsy today and many of the recent favorites yielded some of their gains reluctantly.

Utilities oils and scattered industrial specialties carried on the advance in a half hearted manner. Inertia also overtook bonds and leading commodity markets. Secondary bonds were inclined to sag along with stocks and commodities were mixed and narrow. The British pound led foreign currencies in a modest rally against the dollar.

U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and other steel shares dropped fractions to more than a point on selling attributed by brokers partly to the setback in operations of the industry this week.

Profit taking in rail shares was traced in part to a feeling that freight movement was due to taper soon following the recent substantial seasonal gains. Santa Fe, New York Central, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific were off fractions to about 2 points at one time.

Wall Street analysts who have been watching the trend of loans by banks for commercial purposes as a clue to business currents were encouraged by the latest figures of member banks of the reserve system in leading cities. These showed that while the banks were cutting down their investments in securities by $31,000,000 in the week ended Oct. 14 other loans mostly for business purposes increased $43,000,000. The total of other loans which has been on the rise since early 1936 is now more than $600,000,000 ahead of a year ago.

At the beginning of foreign exchange trading the pound sterling was ¾ cent higher at $4.80¼, and French francs improved .08 of a cent at 4.65¼ cents.
